I can definitely sell per 1k or sell per a certain amount of views for example you could purchase a package for 200k views and I'll delete once it hits those views

I don't usually guarantee adds but I can definitely work something out that makes sense and I know is 100% doable

I'm willing to do this if we use Minimalist as a middleman. I'll pay the fees.

But he would release $200 (50%) after confirmed 500k views and then the rest at 1mill.

I'll pay the fees.

You just vouched for him but you still want to use a middleman? Lmao tf.

Anyways, I'll probably hit you up in the future about this.

The logic of HF users nowadays. "Big Vouch" then says let's use a MM.
