I got some experience with trade bans... Anyway, there are a very few people around here who knows how to get an account unbanned, so if you find someone like that, probably 30-40% off? That is my guess.

The skins arent over the top amazing so I am unsure exactly. Maybe a couple hundred but I could be way off.

It isn't worth much since you can't sell the items. Maybe like $50.

The people who unban accounts wouldn't consider this account, $2,000 is a lot, but at risk of losing their method it's not worth it, they tend to use it on accounts that are $15,000+

Good luck getting this appraised, I'm trying to get my steam account appriased as well.

Not really. Seen for people go for even $1000.

Not sure what you are talking about.

People buy those for hvh, faceit (and services that allow vacs) and to flex, not to get unbanned I personally have never seen an account worth less than $10k sell for the purpose to get unbanned, but it has probably happen
