Thread: [\[\$1000/\$3000\] FINANCIAL FREEDOM GUARANTEE OR REFUND!](#)

KING - June 18, 2017, 3:01 pm

My Story / Information;
Spoiler (Click to View) Dear Readers,

So I'm going to start this off by explaining a few things that I'm sure you're asking out loud. As I'm sure you're all thinking I'm out of my mind if I think I'm going to sell this on here, and you may be right about that but it's not up to me. I'm doing the same thing someone my wife knew for a while and watched him succeed and gave people a chance to have a successful life and a chance at financial freedom. He was charging way more than this and we ended up hitting rock bottom for quite some time before deciding we needed this. When I say rock bottom I mean we didn't know where the food for our little family of three we have will come from until our next paycheck. Then if that seems tough now imagine the one bringing in all the money losing his job and all that happening while my wife was pregnant so this was quite a life. Long story short we fought it day by day, having sell things I had just to get through and things eventually got better. Our credits went from 750+ down to 490-500's so we weren't able to do anything. We decided to save money we didn't even have (meaning it was supposed to go to bills) and saved up for his class. He has a little over 250+ students at that time so the community we joined was amazing and always helpful. After a few months of hardly touching it (because it seemed like it was too easy and it wasn't going to work) I started selling items and more and more and more it was like a snowball effect but on an upward scale and it was amazing. For me it was seeing a sale show up on my phone over and over again and even when I wasn't doing anything. Could be on a day off of work at the time and still making money or waking up to sales flooding my lock screen it is a feeling that makes me feel so happy and relaxed I chanced it like it was a drug and still chance it like it's a drug.

Know why? Because MONEY IS SUCCESS. All those people saying "Money doesn't buy happiness" is an optimistic broke person cause how many of you can truly think for a moment of all the stress that would go away in your life if you were financially free? Bullshit if you tell me none and you're only fooling yourself. We live in a world where success is based on the amount of money you make and/or your achievements.

Now I will be as descriptive as I can before you buy to help you understand and you can even research it yourself and can even do this without anything I can provide but it makes it a hell of a lot easier. All of these things I am telling you is the same thing that was told to me because I Don't Need You to be successful but I would love to help you and see you grow. If I don't sell any then it's not going to make me change the price because again it's to make sure people want it bad enough to work for the material and want their future bad enough to make it happen. That and to cover your fees (yes I will not make you pay for my service and then pay more for what you need) for the first few months because anyone who has dedicated a little time every day doing something that's actually enjoyable has been successful. Example is Amazon chargers a $40 seller fee.

I won't bore you with more of my life story into this because this is about starting your future but if you would like to know more or have any questions/concerns please feel free to PM me or add myself on skype and I can talk to you more. I'm not going to feed you lies or anything to get you to buy as I only people who will be fully invested. If you're not going to invest yourself to achieve financial freedom then I don't want you buying the method. I will be filtering people who buy to ensure this and ensure all my hard work doesn't get leaked.

Due to many people contacting me about payment plans I've decided to allow people to reserve seats at the current price so long we agree on a plan. If people are serious about this then I have no problems working with people I'm as down to earth guy as it gets. Even better the first 3 get to reserve for only $250 down out of 5 total.

Has anything to do with drop shipping? It is dropshipping so the only investment is the Amazon fee $40 to start, then when a customer buys one of your listings YOU are required to buy it as you will not get the customers payment till AFTER satisfaction obviously. But I offer ways to avoid paying out of pocket depending on a persons credit (Jun 20, 2017 03:02 PM)notdbc Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Can you please give more details about what you are selling.

1. I see you offer a business guidance on amazon. Now there are many business guides about how to run your stuff on Amazon. What makes yours different?

2. Does it work worldwide?

3. Again, what do you offer exactly, money wise. A niche of products to sell? (We leave out the marketing stuff and how to talk with your clients).

Being financial successful is a very bold statement especially that you sell it for 1000$ minimum.

I would love to see some reviews from anyone. All great questions, so

1. What makes mine different is it is 100% successful if you just do as I tell you. It's hard to describe all of it without telling you my process but essentially it's telling exactly how over 200 other people have found their way to success using this material and these instructions.

2. Yea it does work worldwide as it is dropshipping, I will be covering US but if you live outside the US air will still work for you. You can also take the skills I teach you and move to shipping internationally also. :)

3. No there is no niche in dropshipping this isn't CPA. You list/ship anything you want and be just as successful. Money wise I can't guarantee you figured in X days as it will rely on you. If I sell this with a guarantee to make 5k in a month people are going to expect that and expect it at the same time with no work. The more you out in (time wise) the more you will make. As I stated in the thread an older lady transformed her Amazon business and made just over $1m in sales a few weeks ago and started only 5 and a half months ago! It's not like she lived in this either she worked full time and took the time she had before bed and on weekends to work on her business. Amazon isn't her only business either she has multiple generating multiple streams of income and she has hired VA's to run her business for almost nothing and I teach you how to do all that. The little $1000 cost is not worth it if you ask me. This comes with NO support so if you get a customer complaint and you don't know what to do. You're only assistant is google. I'm also working on documenting the automation process to it also to cover EVEN MORE that you don't have to do anything and just follow steps. This will teach you how the systems work and what you're doing and why.

Doc all in all this is greater than any other method because I'm essentially holding your hand to become successful. Keep in mind all the material I am providing I myself have put together as when I was taught it was all verbal and a pain to remember. So I documented EVERYTHING and now allowing others to follow in my path and over 200 others but also allow me to have that feeling of accomplishment that I have helped people create a better life for them and their family if they have one.

Thank you for taking the time to ask questions, it shows where your head is at!

(Jun 20, 2017 03:13 PM)Leroy Jethro Gibbs Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I'm very interested in this. I would like to request a review copy. I couldn't afford this normally but I will be dedicated to this. Only thing I request if selected for the review copy is that I am able to contact you at least once a week to get help on any issues I may have. With that being said, feel free to PM me for anymore information or questions you may have in regards to my interest.

Hahahahahahaha n-n-n-n-no.... you will have a phone number to contact me whenever you need not just once a week. I will add I may not be able to respond right away but 99% of the time I can read it right away and if it's urgent I'll make sure I respond as soon as I can.

The last part to the method is being part of "Enterprise" subforum. Now no one has asked me yet what this is which is a little concerning hit for those who read through the comments will know I am buying another group and going to include a subforum that everyone who wants to be a part of this journey can join. This means you will become an official member of the group "enterprise" (I know there has already been a group called that but I've had my eyes set on a specific group for a very long time and that's not changing).

@Everyone

The cost of this will not stay where it is. I will be changing the price of this every 20 members or so up to $10,000. The reason for this is because once the people I mentor start showing their results in here more and more people are going to want to join so essentially giving early bird specials for those who join on faith and are tired of living the life of being told what to do and waking up to an alarm clock every day.

It really is as long as you don't quit. My worry with the vouchers is they aren't invested in it like others are forced to be so I worry about them quitting. As I state in the thread that you WILL come across bumps in the road just because you're dealing with people and let's be honest, people suck when it comes to selling and buying things. Always trying to over price it or get shit for free but that is what the Elite package is for. You have access to my knowledge which I've encountered quite a bit of things and even if I haven't I have ~200 people at the ready to answer any questions anyone has since some people will have different issues with clients than others will.

I appreciate you taking the time to read it and hope everyone understands everything. If not please don't hesitate to ask

I see what you mean . I think it's also bound to the fact people wants money quite easily and immediatly . So If they run on a problem , they won't try to overcome it . It could also be people just having already a business and jsut looking for an easy way of making extra money , which isn't the case of your method .

On this have a great day .

That is correct I will be deciding the final reviewer this weekend and we will start the training the following weekend.

Remember this price will not stay so get it before it goes up. Reserved seating is available, 1 left for $250

I am participating in this and shall post updates every month once I have begun. So far from what I have seen, the price is fair if not underpriced. I hope to provide better evidence of this in the future.

What investment do you recommend us to start with?

Not necessarily, no. Nail clippers could actually sell more than an iPhone listing IMO there are a few factors that play a role that I teach you.

Again just because there are these factors it's not like you kill your time researching all kinds of shit either it's not like that. It's literally shopping with a few extra steps once you're setup.

Amazon charges a $40 fee to become a seller, then it's based on the items you are selling if you don't use my method which will not require an investment.

Curious of a few questions:

- 1) Can you go into your background in regards how you came across this information, how you got started, etc?
- 2) Roughly how much time would one be expected per day or week of work to put into (trying to decide if I have enough time to even dedicate to it)?
- 3) Any experience or prerequisites needed? E.g. even simple things like be 18+, bank account, etc.
- 4) Is there any chance of saturation? Or are people selling different items?
- 5) How is your life now?

Thanks in advance.

1) I'm not sure if you noticed but I put a story spoiler in the main thread that explains a good chunk of it.

2) I would shoot for 2 hours a day / 14 hours a week

3) as long as you know how to shop online then you know how to do this, everything else is essentially done for you

4) if you want to think about saturation think of this equation; number of total items on every single market over the amount of entrepreneurs doing this. lol I can assure you even with each entrepreneur having 100,000 items listed for sale there is still plenty of room to grow. Also now Amazon has bought wholefoods I expect another addition to be added to this method but we will see.

5) my life is on its way up, I'm not driving 6 different color Lamborghinis and have a house that's bigger than any one else's but I know the path it's on. The reason mine is the way it is, is because my wife handles the money. I pay myself a salary rate and the rest goes to VA's and back into the company to further it. Not many people do what I do which is low risk but still high reward (long term) when most people enjoy low risk high reward (short term) and this is simply the difference between people separating business and personal money and those who don't. I do 100% and I started this way actually because I had a serious gambling problem and still do lmao.

Yea you are, lol the big picture in the first original post states the pricing but it's $3,000 for everything to get you to succeed. $1000 for the material if you want to attempt yourself.

The $1,000 package won't be available long as I decided to only sell 5 of those Amazon is changing the world, they're going to be around 200%, if anything in 5 years you will have twice as many ways to make profit just Inc Amazon alone. The support package offers lifetime updates for when I find those ways also.

But let's say I mentor you and no matter what I do I can't make you successful (you have to put fourth effort) yes you get full refund

If the method makes as much money as promised then I doubt you would care about a $3000 refund in 5 years time.

Exactly but people don't see that. Biggest reason is because you're only as successful as the people you associate yourself with.

For example you work for 50k a year salary every year. But Joe your supervisor is making 120k a year.. 120k a year looks doable in your eyes because you see and associate with that person who is doing it. Now if you cut out all those people who bitch about Mondays and dread the week till Friday for a $500 paycheck then you're never going to have the vision of being successful and getting out of your current lifestyle. Surround yourself with success and it becomes more and more realistic and before you know it you've achieved such goal.

Isn't dropshipping prohibited?

Examples of drop shipping that is not permitted:

Purchasing products from another online retailer and having that retailer ship directly to customers; or

Shipping orders with packing slips, invoices, or other information indicating a seller name or contact information other than your own.

Failure to comply with these requirements may result in the suspension or removal of your selling privileges.

Not everyone can pay the price upfront and the price is only going to go up with more students until it caps out at $10k for the Elite (because that's what I paid). Now I'm allowing a certain number per raise so people can get in at the current price.

How this works;

You pay $250 or $500 depending on the seats available, and you workout a weekly payment plan with me. As long as you are paying on time or communicate how life is going, we will start you off once half the class is paid off. Then I'll slowly get you on board as you finish the payments.

Haha yea this is a grey area but not anything you have to worry about. Along with me there are now 294 students who are doing this and then you have the countless other people doing it. There probably will be times other entrepreneurs try to fuck with you and get your listings taken down but it's not a strictly forced term by Amazon. Only way they would care is if you are selling items you shouldn't be and legally they need to intervene. I've spoken with support before when I first started and accidentally told seller support I was dropshipping but he had told me essentially "honestly, we don't care we just have to have that I our terms but if you stay under the radar and sell items that aren't restricted or gated then we won't bother you" - and I'll repeat myself, I am not saying you won't have issues or struggles with certain things but that is why you have my support and if you get an instance where I am not sure I have hundreds of people in the same line of business I can ask questions with and get almost immediate answers.

I teach you the ropes on this. PM me if you want more info or skype

Edit: Terms are changing all the time so please look them over again if you have any concerns.

I'm PMing you a private question also ?

No you can do this anywhere as there are other students who live in Australia, Canada, etc.. I will just train you to focus on the US customers but you can always expand.

As far as tax exemption goes I'm not 100% for other countries but we can sure find out

Keep in mind with this being said, it's not just ONE item you're selling you will have an inventory of probably 800ish when you're ready to have it managed and you no longer need to manage the orders or returns yourself.

UPDATE:

There is a lot of concern regarding the Amazon changes coming up in October. For those unaware Amazon is making it easier for customers to return products to get their money back faster. This raises a lot of concern for most but AmazonQC tried doing this last year and the year before also. This time it seems they're really pushing for it to be faster so we as Amazon sellers need to be smarter than the average bear. The reason amazon is doing this is because they want everything to be as fast as possible and they really want people to FBA. (Which means fulfilled by Amazon)

There is a work around for this and it is provided in my mentoring to ensure you have 0 interruptions!

I have only 1 reserved seat for the current price left at $500 and after that the price will increase $1k each package.

Any questions or concerns please let me know.
