Thread: How much posts/reputation does it take to give rep?

Scriph - June 18, 2017, 6:00 pm

Obviously I am in no position to give rep, but how much does it take to give rep?

justg - June 18, 2017, 6:01 pm

You need to upgrade to l33t, ub3r, or 3p1c in order to give reputation

Kaleb™ - June 18, 2017, 6:01 pm

Posts don't make a difference. If you have 0 posts and L33T you can still rep people.

B3Plays - June 18, 2017, 6:03 pm

you need to be upgraded in order to give rep

3P1C does not allow you to give reputation.

It takes giving money to the forum, that's how many.

If u are a Leet u can give a neutral reputation or a +1 , than Ubers give -3, neutrals or +3, as fas as I remember Also Rekt Members can give more than 3.

3p1c is considered a secondary upgrade, that's why

Yeah, that's why your userbar doesn't get replaced. You can use either 3p1c or ub3r/l33t

You must be at least L33T to rep other members.

1. L33T can give 0 / +1 rep's.

2. UB3R can give -3 / +3 rep's.
3. R3KT can give -4 / +4 rep's.

3PIC has its own abilities and won't allow you to rep anyone. Look at the Extras page below for more about 3PIC features.

Two places I would suggest reading before posting a thread like this again.

Help Docs - Provides answers to pretty much everything a new member needs to know. It includes reputation.

Extras - Provides a list of all ranks and their access/abilities on the forum.
