Thread: How to get a ton of followers

I do not know why people want a bunch of followers, but this is what you should do if you want them.

All you have to do is go to destinylfg.net or destinylfg.com and post that you're doing free trials carries. Make sure to put in the description that the person must follow you in order to be considered for a carry.

You will get a bunch of followers and you can repeat this method. This can also be used for twitter or twitch, but works best for followers on Xbox.

Or you could set your profile picture as a girl and like recent clips in a game hub.
