What's the game you're looking forward to buying?

Fruitcake - June 22, 2017, 5:24 pm

Yessir I have been waiting for this tbh and I don't have any game specifically but man I love the sales

Esme - June 23, 2017, 8:52 am

Been waiting for this for a few weeks now so I could pick up Don't Starve Together for my girlfriend and I. It's 35% off now which according to SteamDB is the lowest it's gone to so looks like i'll be buying a couple copies.

Well there's a few £££ gone...

Boruto Uzumaki - June 23, 2017, 1:59 pm

Already bought like 3 games I don't need only have £15 left to spend.. The decisions are real XD

Before you buy, you can use a tool like SteamDB to check and see if the price has ever been lower than the current sale. Can be useful if you want to decide to wait longer in case it might go even lower.

I'll buy like ~10 games as I just noticed they take btc now hehehe ?

Calibur - June 23, 2017, 9:55 pm

I've been wanting to buy GTA V but since my internet speed's slow as fck which would take me several days to finish downloading it, i guess i'll just buy physical cd installers from local stores. ?

I can't wait to buy hundreds of games I will never play or install. Thank you Gabe.
