Thread: [80\$ in around two hours. \[E-whoring\]](#)

kookur - June 22, 2017, 8:32 pm

I know it's not much for many people but I Ewhore from my Android phone so I consider this is good amount.

I was payed 20$ by four different people as I sell for $20 per person.

40 in AGC and 40 in PayPal, have whole day in my hands just woke up.

This thread is for motivating people who think ewhoring is dead. ?

Spoiler (Click to View)

EDIT: 155 now.

Wow, this sounds great would love to make some sweet cash doing absolutely nothing.

LeonBackward - June 22, 2017, 10:24 pm

Don't discredit yourself by saying it's not much for many people. That $80 is more than most people can manage to make in a month working online.

Congrats to you, onward and upwards.

A dollar a day turns into two dollars a day. The nit can go into five different directions. You start getting 0, 1, 2, 3 or 4 dollars a day. Not from one dollars to two dollars (one of the possibilities) ,you are now with at the pissibility to get 0, 1, 2, 3 or 4 dollars plus another 0, 1, 2, 3 or 4 dollars.

(Random example for simple and reasonable yet reasoning reasons)

TL;DR Never think about it as "wel... not too much for you guys, but" or, "I don't have just the right skills, but maaybe can still make a few extra bucks every day.

Think about it like -- Example of you thinking: "I can either make a few extra bucks every few days by doing this certain method I bought, OOR, I can learn, evolve, and grow into a online "money manufactor" that LOVES his/hey work (And still make lots of money whie learning something new "you always learn something new when you learn something new." (Just made that up) As if to say, for example" "I'm going to learn how to intergrate this PHP snippet into the my website," or "I just need to confiugre these two files to match each other like in the tutorial" Five hour of tidious work, running into problems that run into into problems that run into solutions that run into problems again, until you find the just the righ answer you were loking for the whole time in a simple copy/paste soluttion.

Now you can't say you lost all that time to waste, since you (hopefully) learned lots of new stuff you weren't even looking for in the first place,

So TL;DR and TD;DR the "TL;DR":

Computer applications, internet pages, and the internet/p2p network is growing at an incredible rate and there's a ton of fucking money to be made with it; so start now while you're ahead of the game.

P.S. Congrats of the $80 in that amount of time. Keep at it, brother.

Congratulations on your earnings. I'd like to make easy money like that but can't bring myself to do it. Morals I guess.

It's 155$ now bro.

65 in AGC and 90 as PayPal, probably the best day ever.
