I've checked out the other betting groups during marketing research and noticed that no other groups claim to have a higher win rate. Even with a ratio of wins to cost for entry, we still come out on top.

I think what my partner means is that the figure was something like 71.6% or 72.3% and he rounded it to around 72%.

I may be wrong though.

Still this does not compare in the slightest to other betting groups. None can rightfully claim a higher success rate than 70%, and we don't just pick the odds on teams, they will be good odds.

I'm not sure about the payment side of things as that is handled by Manny Ribera but I thought it was straightforward. Pay now to get access for the full season, or wait a while to see us posting up our winnings and then hop in...

All I know is that he has shown me some of his winnings and even given me some tips myself. This is a legitimate group.

You pay for access to the group. That's it, simple. You can pay right now, or wait until the season starts and we begin posting our wins. You can pay tomorrow, the day after, etc. If you want to get all the tips, then you should buyin before the 1st of July as that is when the season starts!

If you have anymore questions let me know.

Are you completely ignoring the fact you have a listing for betting trial package that lasts a month?

If I buy today. I'm missing out on 3 days worth of tips compared to someone buying on the 1st. In the betting world. That can mean a lot of money.

Also. In some sports. It's quite important when tips are released as odds can change a lot which may make your 75% profit, just 25% profit for me.

According to previous group, those were the statistics. Whether or not that changes, we are not sure, nothing is guaranteed.

We are hoping to increase this to 80% by using more advanced tactics this year, I have seen Manny Ribera betting already, he is hitting very close to 80% on bets which he is not as familiar with as he is with NFL and Basketball.

It doesn't matter what chance you have of winning the bet.

They could be getting 75% wins with odds of 1.1 (decimal) which means you aren't going to make a profit.

75% of average odds of 1.1 or average odds of 4.2

Makes a huge difference.

This is why proof of bets and ROI and proper stats that are useful in the betting world need to be given Exactly this, but I never bet on odds below 1.5. Its not worth the risk, you can look back a few posts of mine i posted 4 tips which were all above 1.5 odds and also hit an 4.2.

If you look at some proof I provided, the list which I share in the group are also all above that number.

I'd happily give this a test run "vouch".

I bet mostly everyday and edge around 85% rate.

If still interested then hit me up.

Papazini - July 3, 2017, 6:47 am

I joined this group sometime last week and I turned $35 to $85. I think we've gone 6-2 in the last 2 days or something around that. I'd recommend this service.

Basically, we post all of our bets in the 'tips' section of the Discord. Then we post the result (win or loss) in another section. We're not making up any wins, our users can vouch that our betting history is legitimate, you can look up the odds on each game and see that we aren't just picking the favorites.

I'm pretty sure Manny will have a spreadsheets of total profits somewhere though.

You're not getting free tips, so don't ask for them. We will give whatever we feel like giving. If you don't want to buy the package and see what it is all about then don't bother. It's not that big of a price really.

'Maybe some1 can post tomorrow results from ALL todays "decent" bets we will see of it was a lucky day:)'

This sentence doesn't really make any sense, you emphasized "decent" which gives off a sarcastic tone as if you think we are just showing you the ones which worked out. It sounds as if you want free bets today and you will verify them tomorrow.

Please don't be an asshole and make yourself more clear, maybe it was just a misunderstanding.

I think English isn't your first language because it is extremely difficult to understand what you actually want from us.

We don't offer free trials, not even for 1 minute. We have posted all the results from yesterday and the days before, members within the group can verify and vouch that they are real and legitimate.

If you want to join you can pay either the monthly or lifetime fees.

How are bets sent out to members?

(Aug 11, 2017 04:04 AM)Montane Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I assume with the odds of some of these bets you have to get on them relatively swiftly.

How are bets sent out to members?

Through our discord channel.

I've set it up on the website for a hidden directory to show the bets which can only be viewed by members of a certain rank which requires an upgraded account on the website to view.

Once I set Manny up on the admin panel he will be posting them on the website and also on the Discord.

I've plans to automatically pull the information from the website onto an Android application in the future as that could be an even easier experience for mobile users.

Lol, i will recover.

Just unlucky on games, stupid defenders that give away pen, teams that get red card and after that lose or even teams that play against 10 still manage to lose the game.

There is no monthly package untill tomorrow.

We only offer the discounted lifetime pack untill the end of this day.

Price of that is 25$ paypal or 20$ btc.

We have started a #100Challenge with our newest tipster.

So far so good, he is offering incredibly high odds and has hit 2/3, getting unlucky on the other one (finishing a 0-0 draw)!

His challenge is a $100 to $10,000. He names the stakes and does all bets through Bet365. Of course you can find your own alternative!

You should usually have a good bit of time. Most bets are posted the day/night before or even on the morning before the games. Sometimes they're posted a few days in advance!

My Review: I bought lifetime

Weekend 1: went 1W9L, not that they made bad calls, just that a lot of games went the wrong way at the wrong time, or teams literally had 5 chances to win and choked hardcore...mostly NFL

Week 1: so after that weekend, I have gone 6W2L, for a 7W11L record so far.

The Group: Group of great guys, you feel instantly welcomed! My only complaint is that there are 3 people making Premium calls (plus a member calls section), and sometimes they have opposite calls, so it is a bit confusing at first. But once you realize how everything works it gets easier, and you learn to take certain calls. The lounge is an awesome place where people talk almost 24/7 about the bets, sports in general, and just chill. It's been a fun place to hangout (I have it open all day while working on the computer xD)

If you're looking for a great group of guys, who provide a large array of bets, then look no further :)

Weekly trial & Monthly memberships can now be purchased on <https://ogbetting.com/>

Just simply:

1. Register yourself an account.
2. Navigate to the subscription tab.
3. Purchase the package of your choosing using PayPal.
4. You will now see a new tab on the homepage linking to a page with all the tips posted.

Currently no tips are posted on the page as we have just fixed it up and require all tipsters to register an account. I will be adding a discord link to the page anyway, which will allow members to join with ease. You can then confirm your identity within the Discord channel.

Lifetime memberships & payments using cryptocurrencies are still required to be manual. We may eventually get payment options for Bitcoin, and I'll be adding in Lifetime options when I'm not tired.

Good night everyone!

I wouldn't recommend ever paying for a HF service with your credit card.

Sadly I don't think that option is available through sites such as Rocketr.

Would you be able to find a cryptocurrency to complete payment through instead?

I could also pay with skrill. And yes, but this one seems quite ok.

I never used any crypto, if you can recommend something fast for this, sure thing I can.

Did you purchase it through the site? We're waiting a little bit before posting more tips. It's currently international week.

As a side note, all members on monthly/weekly packages will obviously be refunded those weeks.

I will see if we can get some tips during this time, not sure if it's possible.

$5/week - Can only be purchased once.

$20/month

$50/lifetime

We just launched the automated site but our head tipster is away so not many tips on there. You can get a lot of support from the Discord.

.dan. - November 13, 2017, 3:08 am

Added you on discord :) !

Tommy DeVito - November 14, 2017, 11:13 pm

I am working on something to expand our service, we are going to offer gaming tournaments and maybe giving signals on Forex but thats all in work and not really sure. The tournament part is coming.

This weekend im back with some good tips!

Ricetossier - November 15, 2017, 12:50 am

I got the weekly trial. I also added you on discord.

SackOfPotatoes - November 15, 2017, 1:49 am

Still waiting to get an invite on discord and have my account (25bet) on the site activated. Sent the money to Manny 2 days ago, Elitas, can you take care of it please?

Cheers.

The tips are a few hours before matches start hangulsheepy - November 16, 2017, 8:15 am apologies for the double post:

am keen on this. will it focus on EPL and other football matches in europe? also, can i use my own country's bookmaker with the tips provided?

zipshop - November 16, 2017, 8:48 am i just bought it added you on discord because I don't understand the website

It will focus mainly Netherlands and Spain and France since Premier League is hard to predict right now, only secure bets are City atm.

Our American Sports tipper is doing great winning almost every bet every night around odds of 2! ?

Our discount code is still available till the end of the year!

Our members are tipping in the group and are having a lot of good days, besides that our USA tipper is also tipping profitable bets!

Discount code in the first post.

At what time are the picks usually posted?

I'm from the UK, would I have to stay up past midnight to get all the bets down?

My USA tipper sends the bets like 4 to 5 hours before they start and for my Football bets you dont have to worry because we live in the same time zone!
