Thread: Making an ebook \(Ewhore\) \(Give suggestions\) // old thread, don't bother responding

Kashira - June 24, 2017, 12:09 pm

I've decided to make an ebook, why? Well, I just don't like the ewhore sections ebooks. Most of these are free information or just complete BS (Kanami's ebook for example).

This leads me to wanting to make a COMPLETE ewhore ebook. This will include Kik, Snapchat, Skype, and any else ways of earning that I've gathered over the course of posting in this section. This will be a PAID ebook once created, but eventually I'll consider releasing it for free.

I'm also considering having levels of the ebook, more knowledge, more cost, or just have a set price of the ebook ($10+)

You may ask me, why not just make it free? I just simply think it shouldn't be free, especially on the knowledge it's going to have inside, and I'd rather have new users buying a GOOD ebook than a bad one.

I'm asking you, the community, on what I should add in it. I will try to write everything that one needs to know as detailed as I can.

Ideas are also appreciated (How I should sell, etc)

ALL suggestions are appreciated, and will be noted.

List of things that are going to be explained:

Identity setup (Done)

Kik (May exclude due to the age we're in, but can still teach this)

Snapchat (Done)

Skype (May exclude due to the age we're in, but can still teach this)

PayPal (Done)

Amazon (Done)

Sugar Daddies

Timewasters (Done)

Traffic (Targeted too) (Done)

Personal pack creation (Done)

Finding packs (Done)

Approaches (Done)

Prices (Done)

Verification (Working on)

Photoshop (Working on)

Double dipping (PayPal, Amazon) (Done)

Chatlogs (Done)

Will add more as people suggest, and remind me of what is needed.

UPDATE

I have decided to add "support"/"mentoring" for the ebook when released.

Add less bullshit and more facts.

Don't advertise it overly done with "MAKE CASH INSTANTLY". Make it a thorough nicely put together ebook so it comes off as more serious :)

Of course, I don't plan to false advertise something like ewhoring, will even mention that it is inconsistent in the thread for Christ sake haha.

Vouch for you.

I've been watching your posts and I'm sure your eBook will be useful unlike other "MAKE THOUSANDS PER WEEK WITH NO EFFORT" ebooks

EliteVyper - June 24, 2017, 12:23 pm

vouch for this guy ! he really good

The Godfather - June 24, 2017, 12:24 pm

please don't make it shit and give me a vouch copy.

The ebooks are quite ridiculous in this section.

One of the main reasons I made my old mentoring thread was because some are literal scams (Kanami's at the time, still is If I'm correct) <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5569619>

I will be giving copies to those who I think are worthy to them, hopefully everyone will enjoy with what I have in store.

I'll of course do this. Also, if anyone has suggestions feel free to say.

Lol, I used to ewhore back 2 years ago. was my main thing for a while and then i switched t instagram account growing.

now im back on some greater shit ;)

OP just being an entrepreneur and someone who'd value the work oneself would put into such an ebook, I would recommend you to price it at like $35.

a small investment for the crazy return you can get after you get the hang of it?

definitely worth it.

DEMI?E - June 24, 2017, 12:38 pm

Shut up and take my money! Looking forward for the ebook Kashira.

Lol, hopefully will start writing all of this soon.

Suggestions are appreciated for those who have them.

Bro most of things you have mentioned is already widely available for free which can be easily obtained from the Free ebooks and threads, if anyone is spending some bucks he will try to get something new and with better proofs and guaranteed earning, something which makes this better than other ebooks already present.

I hope you know all the ebooks that are being sold in the section only talk about Kik, or the method is already known/free.

RepForums - August 9, 2017, 12:46 am if you need suggestions, why not just get someone else to help you?, and selling an ebook, you need to have some unique ideas, like i wrote everything in the 1s i give out myself, never took any methods off anyone. (ovus ewhoring in a whole i didnt come up with) so my suggestion is write only unique ideas and not already done shit and makesure you have done these methods yourself!

theres also snapchat, facebook, and skype , but i see what you mean, kik mainly people focus on because of the fast traffic.

You weren't suppose to bump this haha.

Anyways, I have Galaxy helping me with certain sections of this ebook.

It's hard to sell "unique" things, as they get saturated really fast in the first place. I can separately sell "unique" stuff if wanted.

I'm contemplating leaving out Kik/Skype as these are widely available in guides, but if a user wants me to teach him this, I will (mentoring included).
