Thread: Excavated's 6 Month Feedback

TB12 - June 24, 2017, 8:46 pm

I hit 6 months on this forum yesterday and completely forgot, so I'm going to give some feedback some of you probably won't care about. Most of you will probably check to see if I gave you a shoutout or cock sucked your group. Doing this on my iPad so don't expect a lovely looking thread please. Going to copy most of the format of Vitani's feedback thread to make this simple.

General Feedback

When I first joined people were (and still are) talking about how Hack Forums is "dying". I guess I can't say they are right or wrong since I was not here back then, but this forum is well alive and running. Great community with a good amount of autistic kids that make you feel better about yourself. I feel this forum is going in the right direction since I've been here. I often feel down and spending my time on here seems to always make me feel better.

Section Feedback

HF News: Truly do appreciate what the whole news team does. Always look forward to reading the new edition each week. You guys don't get enough credit Lounge: Love this section. If you ever want to have a good laugh or lose some brain cells, just read a couple threads from here everyday. You meet some good people here too.

Science, Religion, Philosophy, and Politics: I love debating so this section is for me. Gets a bit tricky though since there are so many trolls. Causes you to not know what to truly take seriously in there

News and Happenings: Don't watch TV so I often find out about things in this section rather than the news. Actually pretty useful lol

Crypto Currency: Very informational section, has taught me a lot about Crypto Curriences.

Health Wise: I love this section since I can relate to so many people in the mental health subject. Looking forward to posting more here and helping whoever I can.

Member Feedback

Omniscient - Going to put this all in one. Omni you do a great job and I feel a lot of Hack Forums doesn't appreciate what you do enough. Not everyone will agree with what you do, but the world doesn't work like that. People will always disagree eachother no matter what. I know you do everything you can to improve this community, keep it up.

To staff, I haven't interacted much with any of you individually, but you all have a done a great job. Even if you aren't as public about your work, we know stuff goes on behind the scenes.

Vitani - I know I've already said this several times but I appreciate you upgrading me to l33t so much. I never have people do anything nice for me these days so this really meant a lot to me.

Didn't expect to wake up and see the upgrade. You are always friendly to people no matter the circumstance, that's something I feel I need to learn to do better. :)

Pluxo - Crazy I found out you were a member on here after I joined. Too bad we haven't been able to talk since you've been busy with important things. Hope all works out for you Marshmallow - Probably surprised I'm shouting you out since we never talk. I remember when I first joined you were the first kind member I noticed. Appreciate you being kind to me even when I was a random.

Chef Curry - Most intelligent member when it comes to basketba... LOL sorry I couldn't finish that sentence with a straight face ?

Cylow - You are the HF meme around here. A lot of people can't put up with you but you're a pretty cool guy. Crazy to think at first I couldn't stand you either haha. Have had some fun conversations with you, just think more before you post :)

Leroy Jethro Gibbs - One of the most entertaining and funny members to talk to. You manage to do this while staying HQ as well, pretty damn impressive.

It's late so I probably forgot some people, PM me if you feel I should add you. If I ignore you though it means you're nothing to me :D

Group Feedback

Only going to mention groups I've been in that have been truly special to me. Don't hate me gaming groups I love you both :(

Novus Ordo Seclorum: I've learned so much while in this group. Appreciate all the people in here being relaxed and chill while also being constructive.

Influence: Maybe it's too early to give feedback since I've been in this group only a day. However I already know how special this group will be. I feel that this group is the only one where my knowledge can actually contribute. Fun people here with a common goal of helping others.

Conclusion

I'm certainly no big member on here. However I am surprised I have gotten as far on here as I have. This community keeps me going even if some people aren't the brightest at times. Looking forward to the years to come on here and am very excited to hit 1 year on here. New feedback in 6 months, hoping my opinion of this forum stays the same or gets even better :)

Nice thread, mate! Still sad that you won't get me a Krabby Paddy though </3

Vitani - June 25, 2017, 8:03 am

Awesome feedback thread Excavated! It's really good to see that you have been enjoying it here. Thanks for the nice shout out as well, I appreciate that a lot!

I do want to comment on the first part of this thread, where you said people were saying HF is dying as I have encountered several of these people as well.

These members are almost always (semi)old members who see HF changing and cannot handle the fact that it's not "the same as before".

It's true that HF is changing, as it should. I believe Hack Forums is changing for the better, and if any member just looks at this with an open mind they will see it's a good thing.

Quite nice feedback thread. Here's to another six months ?

Quote:check to see if I gave you a shoutout or cock sucked your group

Not going to lie, I always check.

Quote:I guess I can't say they are right or wrong since I was not here back then, but this forum is well alive and running.

"Members per day: 884.37" - Ever since HF removed the database blocks. This number has been slowly going up, very slowly. But imagine how much it requires for that number to move the slightest considering how far back it tracks.

We are doing well nice.

NightForce - June 25, 2017, 11:53 am

That Chef Curry quip had me laughing man.

Thank you for the shoutout buddy! We've been friends for years and have lost contact twice but somehow I found you and then you found me. I'm super sorry I'm busy with work, 40 hours a week and overtime all on second shift, plus busy mornings so I'm never on hackforums anymore. I'll send you a PM with my phone number though!

Ub3r Approval Status: Denied

Angelus - June 28, 2017, 2:41 pm

I'm coming up on my first year soon, gonna write a nice big 'ol thread for that haha

To be honest I always thought you were here for longer, just your quality and how kinda you are to everyone else

And, it sounds kinda retarded but when I look for quality I sometimes automatically look for the Sapphire of Ub3r or something to indicate that you've deserved it, but ya know just seeing you around, I don't think once I actually looked for those things and always assumed quality

Keep it up buddy, feel free to talk if you want too, always looking for some new conversation, cheers to another 6

Stay safe and stay blessed ?

I was foolish to apply for ub3r right when I got l33t. I couldn't even afford it yet, I was just too excited lol. I'll apply again eventually :)

Honestly, quite a few people can not handle 6 months around here.

To turn around and give a good feed back thread at this time as well, damn OP your on the right path.

I am pushing my 6 year marker and never really bothered to make a serious feedback thread. Maybe in August...

You are right though, the community is far from dead, the Older members just remember the site being much different.

Nostalgia has a way of doing that to you and assist in forming those rigid opinions.

Best of luck in your future ventures OP. Great feed back. ?

Egregious Jr. - June 28, 2017, 6:49 pm

Nice feedback bro, maybe you'll do another one for 1 year ?

?ictor? - June 28, 2017, 7:14 pm

Nice feedback thread, I might do one when I hit 1 year in Sept.

iNviZ - June 29, 2017, 11:36 am

Nice feedback thread buddy, keep up the good work.

Leroy Jethro Gibbs - June 29, 2017, 2:58 pm

Glad to see someone sees my HQ shit posts besides my mom. Glad to see you aren't one of those people that see a dying community but instead a developing community. It always happens to all long term communities. Shit changes, people change, world changes etc. I believe Omni has done a decent job of keeping Hackforums relevant. Even if you haven't been on here very long you can still tell how much work is done to continue the great success Hackforums has become. I'm glad you have enjoyed your time so far! Look forward to continue seeing more of your posts. Just try to keep them HQ. <3
