rsx - June 28, 2017, 6:22 pm

OW only works in comp, so they can pretty much get away with it

zohan hacks - June 28, 2017, 6:23 pm

overwatch is only enabled in classic competitive but reporting them will go towards their next match making game so it might help

Nothing is gonna happen unless they spin in MM.

Zexo - June 28, 2017, 7:45 pm

And another fucking spinner holy shit valve fix your fucking anti cheat.

chrisu - June 28, 2017, 8:45 pm

think of it like casual. reporting does nothing in the current time all depends on the next mm game that they play. if they play it legit and dont frag hard they wont get banned. just play regular comp or the missions

No people refer to "spinning" as ragecheating (pretty much shooting thru walls etc) because of some antiaims that spin your model.

Fortunate - June 29, 2017, 3:40 am

Well it's normal at rank 8-10 in the new weapons expert.

I was in a match with 4 spinbotters on each side.

SippinAcid - June 29, 2017, 4:55 am

Nothing is gonna happen, ow is disabled. Valve disabled autosnipers from the mode to try and stop hvhing on it.

Also as for the thing you wrote, i do good in ANY game i play without ever practicing it.
