I would take out the "drop" part in your name if you need account details, it's a little misleading. I came here expecting a money drop lobby. ?

Good luck with sales man, prices seem fare.

Haha I'm sorry, just currently with Rockstars recent patch dropping takes too long until a new method comes out. I changed it, thank you. :D

I have received a vouch copy from OP, the guy is 100% legit from the service he did for me, boosted me from level 25-75 fast and easy as well as he got me 10m on the screenies i had spent some cash so sadly i only show about 5m but i bought a car and motorcycle and a house so i ended up with 5m or so, thank you so much for this vouch copy and legit service and i will definety be buying cash service from this guy in the near future. thank you.

sadly i didn't get to take before screenies but i hope these screenies convince you of his agility to mod on gtav

Proof:

25 to level 75

boosted me from 700k to 10m
