User looked like he was rep farming due to his threads so I negged him - I get a PM from 2 other users saying he is the well known Kaspah who is a scammer on here.

Not 100% sure if it is, the user PMd me after I gave a -3 saying

Quote:I dont understand what you mean with rep farming... if you mean to earn a Reputation for giving away 1$???

Then i would like to say this was never my plan :/.

I replied,

Quote:Yes it was kaspah.

They read my PM and started browsing the currency exchange section.

Please be careful while dealing with this user.

(not that this is much but they have the same time zone)

Giving away 1$ in PP is you also broke 2 rules 1. It has 2 be 5$ atleast. 2. Has 2 be in crypto

I made a thread where i wanted to buy combo's, He's trying to sell me some so he might be browsing buyers section and just trying to pm everyone on there.
But he might be legit there's no proof of anything.
