How to join:

Recruitment has yet to be determined, so if you're interested, please consider joining. As the only current way to get in right now is to purchase a spot in the group, the spot in the group will last for the lifetime of the group.

Buyin Price:

If you pay with Bitcoin, the price is: $25 USD

If you pay with Paypal, the price is: $30 USD

However, if you have any unresolved scam reports, just blazing with low quality, and/or a high warning you will be denied. If you'd like to purchase a spot, contact me only, Vyrez.

You can contact me for a Buyin by clicking the following button: Click here to contact me

If you would like to purchase a spot for yourself and a friend, I will drop the price to $50 for both of you. You must PM me along with your friend's profile. You are not responsible for what your friends do, so do not worry about removal if they are removed.

Terms of SaleI have the right to deny anyone

I have the right to remove you at any moment

You will simply be removed if you do not follow the group's guidelines

All sales are final

RulesScam Reports are a big thing we look at, if one is brought up against you please try your hardest to resolve it and you will be removed in the mean time.

No flaming, harassing, or anything of sorts allowed. If we see any members doing so you will be removed. No exceptions.

Hackforums rules still apply, make sure you aren't breaking any of them while in here nor any of ours.

If by any chance you think you'll become inactive please post it in our inactivity thread.

A minimum of at least 10 posts are required within a week. After the first couple of weeks, activity will definitely be looked into even more severely!

Do-not cause unnecessary drama, if you and another member or members start causing shit you will be kicked without a doubt.

You will need to post in every activity check, which occurs every few weeks. You will have 72 hours to check in, unless you posted in the inactivity thread which will result in you being exempted from the activity check.

You must remember that he has the right to deny anyone.
I don't believe he would accept everybody just because they wished to buy-in.
Wouldn't you value your group/quality of the group higher than $30? I am sure he is too.
Just because he is accepting buy-ins doesn't mean he will accept anyone with $30.

Revolution is definitely the best group I've been in so far. It's active, has a lot of nice people in it and Vyrez is a good leader. Honestly if you buy-in you'll see.

I'm sceptical about buying in to groups.

Last time I bought into a group, I was kicked the next day and I feel like that was the plan the whole time.

Anyway, this group looks awesome. Good luck with selling spots!

In general, you should be. Though I can't speak for this group, one you buy in to has no real incentive to keep you there, once they have your money. Cool userbar though, that's a plus.

We have had many members in the group now for the past few weeks, we have gone through 8 lounges, hitting close to 10,000 posts now in the whole, entire group.

I mean I want to join but I know you hate me so I will get denied....

RPM Revolution - July 16, 2017, 1:03 am

Hello, Vyrez. While you may not see my post and just simply disregard it as the average one sitting on your thread, I would love to join your group. Now, I am not ignorant to the fact that you must pay to join. I just do not have the desire to pay any money to join your group. The truth is, it would be a wonderful honour if you could allow me to join you. I love cryptography and computer science. I love karate and working out with my dumbbells. I play casual basketball. I am getting into business, and would love to discuss topics relating to marketing. If you would not like to let me join due to my unwillingness to issue you the funds, then that is that. It is, obviously, your full decision to who joins and does not join your group. However, I am asking for a single exception. While I would be active in your group, discussing most (yet likely not all) of the topics here, I just cannot pay the money.

I hope you will consider me, and, if the 98% chance of me not getting accepted strikes through, so be it.

-Kind Regards,

RPM Revolution

You can make friends, socialize in a private subforum?

Learn stuff from other members that they usually don't offer to people in the public?

Ye you'll definitely learn alot of secrets that you cant find anywhere else for 25$.

You can also "socialize" through the public subforums.

Vyrez reinvesting his buy-in earnings on a sticky. Maybe one or two more people will buy now.
