Thread: \$0.87 to \$11 SatoshiMines \(24s\)

Keith Ape - July 1, 2017, 2:47 pm

Deposited $0.87 in BTC into SatoshiMines

Bet 100 bits on the 24 game, and won first try.

Now I have around $6 in BTC.

Should've bet more LOL ?

EDIT: Bet another 100 bits and now have $11. Pretty good considering I started with less than a dollar.

Thanks bro, I'm going to try keep betting now that I actually have some foundation.

Didn't expect to make anything outta my $0.87 ?

Ehh you will just lose it all if you keep playing but I used to just go all in on 5 with 100 dollars and make a shit ton xd.

That sounds fun af ?

And yeah you right, but honestly I wouldn't even feel as bad bc I started with under a dollar.

I mostly play for fun anyways, if I end up getting a LOT then I'll prob withdraw as dumb as it sounds lol

Ya I used to play for fun also but that one time you hear the bomb it just echos in the mind xd.

Never used my own money so it was like fuck it. But I usually always made money back even if I lost it all at the start.
