Thread: Rep requirement for coin speak

Disses - July 3, 2017, 8:31 am

With all the people pumping and dumping, omni dis-allowed it now all you see it "x coin the next eth?"

A video, the person saying how much they invested and in small text. Not pumping

It's just another way to bring exposure to some shit coin in hopes of turning a profit

I say crypto currency should be like the marketplace you need positive rep to create a thread

Rep probably isn't the best solution, but rather prestige like other sections.

>New kid joins >asks how to get rep

>Gets pity rep'd by a bunch of kids who "feel sorry"

I hate to be that guy but:

They should make it at least 136 rep to post in coin speak.

But yeah dude I agree, sucks how people ruin it.

Froggy - July 3, 2017, 8:36 am

Unfortunately you cannot make suggestions on restrictions.

See, pumping and dumping is disallowed. Anyway, people wouldn't take investment advice from someone who isn't reputed.
