Service I paid for: Shado Botnet Service ||Cheap | Gift Included| Private Tools|| || BTC & Paypal ||

User: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3190789>

Story: I paid ShadoBIH $40 BTC for him to setup a botnet for me. I sent him the money and told me it should take up to 24 hours to get it completed. I asked for bb botnet which he said he could setup. He setup the botnet for me and sent me the login information for it however he didn't give me the vps information. So, of course at that time I'm angry because I paid $40 for a botnet which I thought would've included EVERYTHING and just "access" to the botnet I paid for. So fast forward a couple of days from that moment he messaged me on skype saying that he restricted my access to MY BOTNET which I PAID for. He told me to remove a post I made about what his service really had. So, he told me that I have to remove or edit my post because it breaks his T.O.S which it didn't at the time but he edited his thread for it can be included. I told him I wouldn't remove it but I'll edit my post with more information and that information being what we talk about in skype. I did not leak ANY information regarding him nor myself all I did was inform future customers about what his service really about. Fast forward to yesterday the botnet I paid for was shit down and I asked him why it was shut down and he told me he has to contact their support. I contacted him today regarding a refund since I don't want to deal with me gaining a lot of bots then having my botnet shut down. So, I thought I'd post in his thread with my current situation and he messaged me on skype saying I am now banned from his services and will not get a refund. Also, I know I was being a dick but I was mad at that time and expected more for $40. Guess you can't trust HF to buy any good quality product.

This is completely invalid, you have broke TOS and you recognize that also threat me that u will doxing my profile?

and you will deal with me after getting my information?

hope staff see this thread and do their actions.

Doxing HF users are allowed. Threatening is not, however (not saying that is have occurred any threats here).

no problem about doxing but this is kind of threat btw, also in his "Story " have a lot of laying:
-he didnt ask me for bb before i setup botnet for him
-posting screen shots were not allowed on my thread and i give him about 3 days to fix it but he Insisted on keep it
-His way of speaking in skype was inappropriate.
-he mockery about my support and claim that my service is LQ just because i accept paypal

I have all proofs and its ready to show if needed.

Doxing a HF member is 100% completely fine until it get posted on HF. Also, what I posted on your thread is nothing but showing people what you currently offer on your service. I do not see what I did wrong. Yes, I threaten you but anyone will when they're angry at a shit service they've received. Also, I didn't mock your support I said I rather get a refund then your support. And like I said before any Botnet seller would know the risk of accepting PayPal. Any you're hosting your Botnet on a HF hosting. Yet you expect me to believe your service is "HQ". Been less than a week and my Botnet was already shut down.

I have all proofs and its ready to show if needed.1. I asked for bb which you can clearly see in skype so don't fucking lie. I didn't ask for bb 1.8 however is what I'll admit.

2. When I bought e service that was never a t.o.s until I posted our conversation which made you change tos to save your ass.

3. Lol?

4. All I said was I rather have a refund then your "premium support" but I guess that consider "mockery" stop acting like a 13 year old.

You are big liar, u dont discuss the type of botnet before u send the money and here are the proof also, i change my thread every time when someone vouch but if we assume that I change my TOS there is no problem too because when u bought my service u accept to the third point of TOS and its "I can change TOS anytime"

I think this statement is enough to say to u maxim, express confession that he threat me ..

Getting the VPS/hosting credentials was nowhere advertised, where did you get that from?

You're basicly saying you're getting scammed because you made your own statement on someone ELSE their service.

I think OP still deserves a refund due downtime and lack of service.

I assumed I was getting a vps but I didn't which I got mad over. However, the thing that got me even more mad was that the Botnet got shut down in less than a week of being alive.

I posted every single conversation in the thread. I didn't leave out anything. So don't try telling me that I'm lying. Even in the image you posted it said I wanted betabot yet you say I didn't discuss about what I wanted... Also, the last part of your tos is for you can easily save your ass when you need too. I seen other member do the same with that tos however that is unfair. Also, you say we can't post conversation but anyone can go look at what I posted to see if what I did was an attempt to isolate people or just me leaving my feedback with some screenshot to prove my claim and not talk out of my ass. A refund would easily solve the issue. I won't talk to you and will remove any comment I've in your thread.

I am the one who decides if u could post conversation on my thread or not, I've the full right as i said to change TOS anytime and when u bought my service you literally accept all my TOS and because I am fair guy I give u chance to remove it but u didn't.

If you do not care about violating the TOS I won't care about banning you.

Kinda shitty how you change your T.O.S after OP said something regarding it. Either way, BN shouldn't have gone down. You also should've done your best to fix the issue without escalating it into bigger problems

I agree with Aggron, OP Deserves a refund for lack of service and downtime you are totally wrong i didn't change the TOS after he bought it, and if we assume i change it there is no problem in that case cuz i already notify him about his post, please read conversations before u post anything.

So, when I posted my feedback on your thread you revoked access to it and told me to change it because I am trying to isolate your customers with what I posted. Then, I posted screenshot of what you said which didn't include any personal information. After I posted that you said to remove the pic and leave the feedback I posted earlier and gave me permission back to the Botnet. So, everything was fine but when the bonnet shutdown you told me you contacted the support but that support was a HF member. Why would you host a Botnet on a HF hosting instead of a more reliable offshore hosting? And you changed the tos as soon as I posted conversation because I'm 100% I was the only person that did that and to save your ass you changed tos. I'm okay with accepting the tos but when you using the tos to save your ass that something I won't tolerate. Like I said in my previous post a refund will be the easy way to handle this. You won't deal with me again and nor will I. Everything I posted will be deleted.

The HF rules state that you can't post a member dox on HF. However, you're allowed to get anyone to dox the member as long as everything is kept private. And I'm not planning on swatting him since that childish I've other plans if this is not resolved.

This thread made me laugh.

You guys went too far without noticing the obvious.

OP is crying over 40$ but he put a bounty on that guy... which makes me laugh so hard.

AlphaIndustries - July 5, 2017, 10:00 am

Op sucks that this has happened, I can set it up for free for you if you ever need it again.

Anyone losing money will be stressful. Pretty sure if you got scammed you wouldn't brush it off. If you got nothing better to say then get off the thread. Thanks

Tohka - July 6, 2017, 9:22 pm

This report is still open and user haven't refunded my money.

~ Left HF For Good ~ - July 6, 2017, 10:20 pm

Sucks to hear that this happened OP.

After reading through the post, hopefully you get a FULL refund.

NightForce - July 6, 2017, 10:22 pm

Sucks that a whole dispute taking up time and resources is over $40. I would be angry and stressed over it to OP. I don't know if I'd go as far to put a dox bounty on him though.

Yeah, I just want my refund tbh. But, he doesn't seem like he active on the forums he just lurking. Also, the moment I posted the thread I was pretty angry because not only did the services I paid for got shut down but he banned me from his services and said I can't get a refund which is ridiculous. I most likely will take out the Dox bounty since I rather act civil about matters now that I'm not angry.

Edit: User has agreed to give 50% of my money back. I've agreed to that statement and I'll now close the thread.
