He'll need positive reputation to do that.

Now is your chance to do your good deed of the day.

My young boy, let me explain it to you.

The Black Screen of Death is an error screen displayed by some operating systems after encountering a critical system error which can cause the system to shut down.

Mr.Ransom - July 5, 2017, 11:18 am the user is a fruad. i personally took my hard time. and i really helped him and did everything i could for him.

then he starts blaiming me. <http://msoftsupport.center/> < is the website i coded.

i did a good job. and the user did not even come close to paying me 700$ it was more like around totally 550$ totally.

i will be posting full proof in a minute to prove this user is completly lying. and attempting to get me in trouble alright so first of i would like to start out by saying the op is pulling numbers out of his ass here is the payments op sent me

<https://imgur.com/a/c1ahB>

224+256+51= 531 i have no clue where op pulled 700 from that is just to show you he is a fraud trying to get me in trouble.

secondly i spoke to the op trough voice chat and screenshare i showed him the final website and he agreed that the website <http://msoftsupport.center> was finished.

i started driving small traffic to preview. and he kept pulling excuses such as our phone is not working at the moment. or other stuff.

so i offered the op an alternative way to recieve and do phone calls. he declined the offer and told me he wants only in the uk.

he started getting very clingy overall he wanted me to do some sqli to get dbs from a tech support company, and he promised i would recieve 50$ extra if i managed to pull up any injections. i did a full scan i found around 15 diffrent sqli injections which where post. he pulled another excuse and said no i could not manage to do it.

he still owes me 70$ he agreed to pay 250$ to start working and 250 and he would get more. and send me later.

he send me as you see 224$ and 256$ which mean he would owe me 20$ more and for the sqli scan 50$ cause there is no way you could mess 15 vurnabilites up.

this was completly off site aswell

Actually not "blank" nor "black" and its well known that its a "error screen"

But the OP probably said something else as there's no point in "buying" a bsod?

I have submitted payment proof of 700USD.

msoftsupport.center -This site if u check the code this person HTTracked from a url I found and gave him.2 minute work . I am sure anyone can see how much effort this required.

Give me a proof where u gave me a single hit to the url.

The DID number he was supposed to buy for me but still I said I will do that part. And if I want in UK why is it a problem ? U had agreed for this.

This person upgraded to LEET the day I gave him the money.

He says it clearly that he could not get the dbs . he provided me Vega scan report. whcih have also false positives.

Quote:he still owes me 70$ he agreed to pay 250$ to start working and 250 and he would get more. and send me later.

After this I am sure no one will buy from u. Good Luck ripping off from people.

As for me I found some really good people here after u ditched me. So I take it in my stride. U will remain low and keep scamming for such low amounts.

In case u can if u have the guts please answer y u have put me on ur ignore list and have blocked me on Skype as well.

Scammer Scammer. Such a shame .

Here's whats wrong with this you trused a member with 16 rep and didn't use a middle man with a total of $529 USD which is idiotic and you should add his uuid to the tittle and a link to his profile also not to mention he is a member of 38 Days

Also add him to the scammer DB

Just message Minimalist or someone else telling him you need a middleman. You send him the payment, and as soon as he delivers what he needs to, Minimalist or any other middleman will release the payment to him.
