Find it funny that a L33t user with 100 rep wants to scam $8.

Really....$8 how broke can you be

Miraisalam - July 7, 2017, 1:45 am

Pathetic. Make sure the person next time you're buying from is trusted and not a broke boy trying to get candy money.

This kid is a retard. I love how the moment you sent the BTC he blocks you. What an idiot.

It's cool buddy! Appreciate the kind thought but just don't want anyone getting scammed, not too fussed about a small amount of money.

Had Ub3rs with more rep going first to me when they bought BTC from me, yesterday some user sent me $60 PayPal in exchange for BTC.

Yet a higher repped user wants to scam me $8.

Also what's so funny to me is the fact that L33T costs like $20, surely if $20>$8, then you'd try to at least scam more even if you're that poor.

Oh, kids these days.

Rofl. I'm sure he'll get what's coming for him.

He spent more on his l33t upgrade here, what a retard.
