Thread: Since I can't post in the innuendo section | Advice to get back with Ex Girlfriend

Eccentric - July 12, 2017, 2:24 am

Okay to start off I just want to say that this isn't guaranteed as nothing is in this world, but this thread will give you a very good chance!

First: What you want to make sure is that your ex still has feelings for you, if not than sorry to say she probably wont get back with you lol.

Second: Start talking to her on a daily basis, no matter what it's about just find things that will keep a conversation flowing between you and her, try to make her laugh while having this conversation with her.

Third: this is where you want to move to the next step in asking her questions, but don't ask her to many or don't ask her things that will make her not want to respond. What I am trying to say is don't make her uncomfortable with questions. Ask her things like; (Do you ever think we can workout again) or ask her what if questions like; (What if we hung out and kissed) just simple things like that!

Fourth: This is where you want to start making your move without her knowing! For example, ask her to hangout more often like as friends (Hints: she doesn't know the friends thing means "Im gonna try to get you back") and ask her if she hungry while hanging out , and if she says yes then take her somewhere to eat respectable with good food. Don't offer to pay the bill until it comes out, when the bill for the food comes out just take it and put your card or cash with it and give it back to the waitress! She will give you a nice smile and a good look after that. If she says you didn't have to do that then simply reply with, I know, but I want you to spend your money on something you want as I just did! She probably wont even notice the last part lol.

Fifth: Ask her if she wants to go on a hike (Normally state parks have hiking trails) and then if you guys go find a spot that looks nice and take a break and if she sits down sit down next to her and at this point is when you want to tell her how you really feel about her, tell her you never stopped loving her etc and you still really like her and you miss her, and most importantly tell her you miss her hugs!

Sixth: This is where you want to make a move and kiss her when you guy's are hanging out and if not a kiss then simply give her a long hug! For example, say you guy's where hanging out and you drove, well when you bring her back to her car o r back to her house talk to her for a bit and express your feelings again and then before she gets out or leaves then give her a hug or a kiss on the cheek, and if shes driving tell her to be safe after that!

Seventh: This is where you tell her that you have changed (assuming you have) and you arnet the same old guy that didn't work out last time, and then tell her you really want to date her again, and then the moment of truth is when you ask her if she will give you another chance! If she says she will think about it, continue to talk to her, don't pressure her, and if she says idk then tell her some more things about yourself that has changed and tell her you promise to not be the jealous guy or whatever ruined your last relationship, and then ask her if she will please think about it! And last if she says yes, then take her somewhere romantic and ask her out in a better way than before to show her you care and you have changed!

Or you can just leave her and forget her, she's not the only woman in the world and she is not the perfect one for you.

Seems like a decent thread.

However I agree with the other members and would rather just move on.

I'm sure someone will find this useful, OP. ?
