rowyoboat - July 12, 2017, 3:02 pm

On 06-30-2017 I sent The Grim 0.00647273 BTC for his rate of $3/ride for 5 rides.

Heres an image of our PM's.

I really thought the free rides method got patched in the last few days. Maybe not though. Hopefully this gets resolved. Or at the very least, the 3 that I know of are.

Bought them 8 days ago, pm'd him that weekend. Still nothing. Also messaged him friday and today.

Did you try PMing him to remind him to come on Skype? Maybe he just forgot.....

His skype has been on the 'away' status the whole time. He's responded to me once so I didn't think I'd need to.

Weird, hope you get this resolved buddy.

The GRim - July 12, 2017, 9:20 pm

Opening scam report without me seeing your PM? You think I have only your PM to respond to lol?

I don't see the point in resolving this since normal members cant even close the thread.

reBELLYus - July 12, 2017, 9:23 pm

I doubt he is going to rip you for $5, lol.

I hate dealing with impatient assholes. Old method got patched and I needed time to get it working again and assholes like him can't even wait.

Members can no longer junk thread anyways. Him changing the thread name and removing your UID should be enough though.

I hope you can solve this

You shouldn't be blackmailing the dude with his money. Regardless of whether he was impatient or a dick, you're literally just admitting to taking his money here.

Riyu - July 14, 2017, 5:39 am

Legit.

Sorry that he blackmailing you for your funds back.
