Thread: WARNING! Fake Transaction Accelerator!

Lor?d - July 12, 2017, 4:17 pm

So I was trying to find the link for ViaBTC's transaction accelerator and I came across this website. DO NOT USE THIS SITE (Click to View)speedbtc.com

It's an obvious phishing attempt to steal wallets. I mean just look at the video on their site. They require you to input your recovery phrase.

Why would anyone trust a site that asks for their private keys?

Report the site for phishing on google here:
