Thread: [\[OSRS / RS3\] Old main account, average stats, cheap!](#)

Hoping to get rid of my OSRS account as I never play anymore. I have had this account for years, just under a decade and I am the original owner of the account.

This account has never been sold or compromised, and I have all security info as well as the email on the account.

Here's an album with some pics of the stats and quests done on both RS3 and OSRS:

C/O:

BIN: $40

Also have some fairly decent OSRS items like the DDF and a whip, along with about 3m in bank value and gear to go with it. My bank is pretty empty on RS3 and I don't really have any valuables in it since nobody really plays that anymore.

Offer up! ?

Lowered the BIN to $50, the account still has membership on it for another couple weeks as well.

I will literally sell this to someone for $40 BIN today. I truly don't want this account anymore.

You still selling this, I have $35 in my Paypal right now. It's verified as well (over 12k received) if you don't wanna go first will gladly use a middleman! Let me know
