Thread: A round straight to your head ! - I want to shoot you.

Armada - July 12, 2017, 10:21 pm

Upon discovery of how many people are actually local to me around here.
(Toronto, Ontario, Canada) I was wondering how many of those local around me would be interested in a Paintball game/match or competition?

With about 10-20 people we can get an awesome game going, and it is relatively cheap to get underway.

Those interested, HMU!

I wish I lived in a city that actually had people.

Nobody does anything fun here.

I thought this was an invitation to join in a round of Russian roulette.

I'm disappointed.

I'm from Toronto as well I live not to far from a few paintball places this would actually be pretty fun since i haven't been in a couple years.

Industry - July 13, 2017, 12:28 pm

It sounds like all fun and games, until somebody like Orgy replaces his paintballs with marbles.

@Armada, I never knew you live in Toronto... I learn something new about members here every day. We should have a Toronto City meet up one month, I know quite a few people on HF that reside in T.O.
