Man all these long standing manga/anime are ending. Who will be the next to take the reigns?

Boruto will be the next!!! Hopefully!

But I've heard all sorts of great things about fairy tail so I'll probably give it a watch when it finishes so I can binge it and not worry about having to wait for more episodes to come out

GroveStreetOG - July 18, 2017, 12:35 pm

Watched it and keeping up with the manga currently.

This is kinda sad because for a good few months I would wait for each Monday to read it. The latest arc had so much potential its sad to see it end like this....

Earlier episodes were so nice, wasn't too big a fan of the later ones though. It got a bit too "ecchi" for me.

Spoiler (Click to View) The way they defeated Acnologia... literally 1 nakama punch and that ended him

smariusx99 - July 20, 2017, 11:36 pm

It was a good show but there are better like dragon Ball or one piece

Looks like the last arc is planned to be animated in 2018.

PYTHONG0D - August 1, 2017, 4:32 pm

It's about time they ended this. 1 down 2 to go.

XpUpper - August 1, 2017, 5:40 pm

Good riddance. I liked it at first, but then every story arc was the same repetitive shtick.

Barney - August 2, 2017, 1:27 am

Fairy tail had so much more potential than the way it ended

FNF3TD - August 2, 2017, 1:35 am

Now that this is over you have to time to go watch My Hero Academia.

Eternal. - August 6, 2017, 10:47 pm
