Thread: The Entrepreneurs | Official Group | Cryptocurrency Sector Recruitment

mvmt - July 17, 2017, 8:35 pm

Welcome to the recruitment thread for The Entrepreneurs - Cryptocurrency Sector! We're excited to expand our team and look forward to your application.

Who are The Entrepreneurs?

The Entrepreneurs is a business minded group which encourages the personal & economic growth of its members. You're encouraged to engage in partnerships or discussion amongst our members. The group will cover numerous courses, online certifications, tutorials, sales tactics, books, magazines, and more. Our key topics include Digital Marketing, Data Analytics, Copywriting, Advertising, Psychology, Business Management, Money Management, Investing, Growth Hacking, Computer Science & More.

Userbar:

What is the cryptocurrency sector?

This sector within the group will focus on projects related to cryptocurrencies and investments. Not only will you get access to our main subforum and all its resources, but also the password-protected crypto subforum. Be prepared to actively engage in projects and post contributions within the SF and throughout the community. Lack of activity will get you kicked, so make sure you don't apply unless you truly want to be a part of the group.

Rules of Recruitment

1. Do not PM me about your application
2. Do not ask when people will be accepted
3. Submitting multiple applications will get you blacklisted
4. I don't care how much you've made in cryptos, I want to know about your knowledge and dedication to the subject

Just because I know I'm gonna have to re-emphasize this: I don't care how much you've made with cryptos. Just because you can read the crypto section on HF and you invested $100 into XRP does not make you a professional trader. I want to know about what crypto projects you've been involved in, what contributions you've made to the community, etc.

How to apply

I'm going to keep the application short and simple, answer the questions completely and you will be added if I deem you a fit for the group. You will only hear back from me if I have any questions or if you've been accepted. If you don't hear back from me, don't bother applying again. I will keep this recruitment rolling until I have a sufficient number of members. Current Entrepreneurs must apply as well in order to gain access to the private SF.

Decided against it.

Same name and bar, maybe a new bar down the road.

Just different motives within the group. Same ideals; pursuit of knowledge.

You'll have to be fluent in English to join.

India is not our native country, sorry.
