Thread: [\[Limited Edition\] Eclipse Award For Sale \[3 Hours Remaining\]](#)

Views - July 18, 2017, 4:47 pm

I'm currently looking to sell one more Eclipse award to go towards funding some things I want to do on Hack Forums in the future.

1 award was sold previously for $1050 BTC.

Information

I was granted the ability to grant my own custom award in December known as the Eclipse award which is a limited edition set of 12 awards the same as the Quazz and Gavel of Dredd before it.

It can be found above or on my profile along with the other members lucky enough to acquire one below.

<https://hackforums.net/myawards.php?awid=98>

If you are interested in owning one of these post below with your offer and I'll note it below.

I am also allowed to make the caption anything you'd like as long as it's within reason.

Sold for $700 BTC by Steve.

BIN: $1000 BTC/ETH

Appreciate the offer I'll note it but I don't plan to let this go for anything under $500 BTC/ETH.

Zallium - July 18, 2017, 7:25 pm

That's fucking sick dude how do you get your own awards, must be a super hacker or something.

Only the real ballers will partake in this bidding. However, I do agree with you.

Who is "Quazz"?

OP is a newf4g, don't understand why anyone would buy this, and I am sad that Omni allowed you to even do that.

J. McCarthy - July 18, 2017, 9:04 pm

Stop fucking sales trashing on the guys thread.

No one interested gives a fuck what you have to say and you're only breaking marketplace rules.

Ummmm didn't you say that the LAST time you sold it was the only time you'd be selling it?

Did you at least discuss it with the member who bought the first (and supposedly ONLY) grant of the award?

Views - July 19, 2017, 12:38 am

Added this to the OP a few hours ago but the starting bid that I would actually accept is $500 BTC/ETH, if no offers above that arise I'll just keep the award.

I'll drop $400 if you consider taking bids below $500.

Also - does the person that wins this have the ability to set the 'description' to whatever they want?

how many of these can i buy?

is it just 1 eclipse award per person?

1 award per person, and this is the only one for sale, already know what the rest will be used for so this will be the last one sold.

Steve - July 19, 2017, 8:52 am

I will bid $500 on this and will not be retracing my offer this time.

I believe you stated on your last sale that it would be the last one sold. What assurances will you be offering to ensure you do not sell another one if I were to purchase?

I don't think that really effects the value of the auction if we're being real here as it's still a limited set of 12, not gonna get myself in a tight spot here either.

Not planning on selling anymore but they're still a 12 award set.

Perhaps people would be more keen to purchase the award if they felt confident that you wouldn't be selling them anymore. Saturation of a product affects the market and the price quite a bit. It's evident that you skirt around the question. GLWS.

Yeah man cause an award that'll only have 12 ever for the rest of the time Hack Forums is around can totally be saturated all good though.

Regulus - July 19, 2017, 1:57 pm

If you want a rare award, this is the one to go with.

Vitani's Mate - July 19, 2017, 1:58 pm

Quite a few $$$ for an award.
I would like that award.

I bid $600 for the award. I must get the funds if I do win.

Steve - July 19, 2017, 2:39 pm

I have plenty of funds currently available and can send you $650 ETH for this award right now.

J. McCarthy - July 19, 2017, 2:42 pm

Hmm trying to contemplate if I should drop 700 on this....
ugh

There are already other awards that are $1000

Grand amethyst is $1000 and lots of them have been sold

Bitcoinage used to be alot but now it's flat $250 instead of just 1 BTC

Bitcoin rose up a lot from last night looking to end this auction in the next couple of hours so if you'd like to make a bid get it in.

Must be able to make payment within 24 hours.
