Thread: Luring \(Experienced Only\)

Zeebass - July 19, 2017, 8:20 am

Looking for another member who is/was active in the luring scene. I've talked for some big names in the past (Jadisugly, Surfer Girl25, Jenny 985) Talking was my passion, and I would like to remain being the talker. I want to re-enter the scene with another experienced lurer. Please Post or PM me if you are interested in starting to lure together.

Kayoz - July 19, 2017, 8:36 am

Not really interested but do they ban for luring atm?

(Jul 19, 2017 08:36 AM)Kayoz Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Not really interested but do they ban for luring atm? Yes luring usually falls under the context of item scamming. However, it is very unlikely to receive a ban for luring.

I got mates in NGL (but really inactive now). Got alek and irit on discord. Aleks is in ruthless. Got a few money talk (kinda new luring clan) members I keep in touch. I also keep in touch with some LemonLimes members. Do you know any people from those clans?

Being the talker in quick talks lures or pre-convinces lures? If you wanna get the big fish now you mostly need to do preconvinces. Although I have made ~250M in a day from quick talks all day not to long ago. I was pretty lucky most days arn't like that from quick talks lol. Also PM me what lures you did, kinda interested.

(Jul 19, 2017 08:36 AM)Kayoz Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Not really interested but do they ban for luring atm? Yeah, they ban you. (Manuel) High Value Item Scamming is what shows up as if you get banned.

Yea, it's not super likely but if you are only doing quick talks expect a ban in a 2-3 month max. lol :/

I have a partner I lure with so I am not hella interested with luring with someone new, but it's always nice to have someone I can call if my mates are offline.

Also are you in any luring clans? When where you active? Luring on 07 or rs3?

Cortana_ - July 20, 2017, 2:36 am

May i ask why lure , people like this ruin the game of Runescape , sorry but this gets me fucking triggered. imagine if you were the one who got scammed.

Don't know how you can steal off other people... anyways GL.

I quit the game same day and had depression. I'd always get sad thinking about what happened to me. I've been through it. Go trigger yourself mother fucker because I know how it fucking feels to get lured. It is a shit fucking feeling. But guess what, if I'm not luring "x" someone else is going to get him.

Had this happen to me before. Found a guy super easy lure and decided just to be his friend rather than lure him right away. Next day he is telling me how he got lured 110M and pissed me off that I didn't get him even though I knew I could of easily done it.

I don't play the game for fun though. I lure and sell the GP to make some money. Ruins the game cool for you. You getting trigged...Now that you can fuck off because I have been lured and was fucking devastated for years. 2012 I left and started playing this game 2017. Lured a few bil and sold.

Luring isn't exactly stealing as you say though...I find it more of an art form. It's mostly SE but can't discuss that here on HF(against rules here).

Yeah I was on that too...Never heard of em lmao.

I don't mind luring but this is the most sad and delusional post I've seen in a good while. I'm sorry that you are the way you are.

How so? Cortana is making it seem like it's just wrong and ruins the game. I have been lured in 2012 meaning I've experienced what it feels like to go through that lol? :P

I do enjoy luring. It feels good picking up the items. I wouldn't say ruined lol just not fun when im not luring.

In a sense yea whatever it has ruined the game. Whatever man.

I'm just trying to say to the other guy that I've been in the lured persons shoes so he shouldn't be judging why people lure. People have their own reasons.

But yea I get what your saying. A bit ruined.
