Thread: 'Fox Selling invalid group memberships

Armada - July 19, 2017, 10:12 am

First lets start here with THIS THREAD.

So, lets start with the obvious.

- Threads closed.
- No Explanation as to WTF was going on here.

So, lets address the following:

@ 'Fox,

What in the flying fuck made you ever think something like this would ever fly?

I have confirmed, Legends group never approved this bull shit. So how in the holy hell are you selling spots to our group?

Frankly, I am not sure what was going through your head at time of posting. Perhaps ownership of your OWN group, and a special little pixel next to your name was enough. I dont freaking know.

But yo, I will make this VERY, VERY clear.

Leaders and Group Owners make the decision who the hell gets entry in to groups. Especially Legends group.

Not you, not some other group owner.

You had absolutely ZERO right to offer position to groups you had no authorization from to do so.

I am straight out am debating opening an attempted scam report on your ass for this unless I get one hell of a viable explanation as to what the flying fuck you were thinking.

I PMed you politely first.

I PMed you:

You read it:

And you ignored a Group leader requesting where in the flying fuck you get the right to sell spots to our group.

So, an explanation please... If you might.....

I mean it would look pretty fucking bad a BRAND NEW group owner trying to scam members out of invalid group memberships, after all...

I am sure you got a valid explanation as to how you planned on selling group spots you had no right to.....

It is pretty obvious that it was a troll thread, not sure why you are so worked up about it.

I want an explanation as to why in the hell Our group was offered up for auction with zero authorization.

SIM-1729678 - July 19, 2017, 10:16 am let's just add the fact that he was selling something outside the marketplace. Instant 3-day ban?

The GRim - July 19, 2017, 10:16 am

I feel proud to be part of such a group :).

Varane - July 19, 2017, 10:16 am

I can vouch for this, FOX NEVER ASKED ME IF HE WAS ALLOWED TO SELL BUYINS.

And you find it acceptable for me to sell spots to your group?

Lemme open a thread right the fuck now.

For all I care, this was an attempted scam. An explanation please.

ArMada, please do revise your accusations carefully before posting them publicly. Plenty insinuated me of being Codefuser without any proofs and nothing happened.

Literally if you think the thread was legitimate you are a joke.

Yandere - July 19, 2017, 10:17 am

It was clearly a joke... Lmfao. This community alert pointless.

Pointless, it took ONE idiot to fall of this shit and hes $5000k up...

Probably close to what the group cost him.

So you're telling me he'd scam for $5k

Yes - no one has been scammed $5k

This. ^ Im sure every member who saw the thread realized it was just a troll. If anyone did have $5k to drop on HF they wouldn't do it to join groups lol, I'm sure they'd most buy a group instead.

But WAIT, there were multiple spots offered, no?

REGARDLESS

He had absolutely NO RIGHT to make this offer, troll thread as its claimed or not.

Case and point.

Many did, it takes the leaders to authorize group memberships. But what stopped him from collecting the money?

The point is, He had no authorization to make a thread even as trollish as this is.

BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY

@ 'Fox

You are the OWNER/Leader of Numerous groups.

You are suppose to be the EXAMPLE to members.

And this is what they get?

Honestly man, I sit here and see people bitching how this site is going to hell...

Well, think about it, how are members suppose to get trust when they got upper/higher members fucking trolling like this bull shit?

You fucked up, and offered me zero explanation and ignored my message for 9+ hours.

This is why the thread exists.....

You good sir, need to be a better role model to the rest of the members given your current stature.

And trolling other group leaders and members... Not good either. Look @ WTF happens....?

I tend to agree. I can't imagine he was being serious. But just in case I'll give him a warning and close the thread.

I don't know why OP got so bent in public.
