Thread: i Made A Program On How To Gain Unlimited Xbox Followers \(100% Autopilot\)

HEISENPUG - July 20, 2017, 10:41 am

Hey everyone ?

i recently found a way to gain followers on Xbox 100% Autopilot. Basically its a program i made that will gain you followers every minute that passes or less. Im currently working on a tag with 1k followers i started very recently (2 days ago). Im not to sure if anyone is interested in this kinda stuff but i think it has a Upside to it as if i post on my activity feed im able to advertise and receive likes and get people to watch my content.

Let me know what you think i should do.

Thanks ?

Do you have any advantage with the followers on xbox?

Dont see this useful but could potentially lead to more value in tags when selling.

Yeah lol, Every time i post in my activity feed i gain a ton of likes and people look at the content i post. Recently i got over 100 likes in less than a hour. i was thinking maybe i can use the tag to shout people out or maybe just sell the tag when i reach 10k followers every time.

You should try selling the accounts once they reach past 1k. might be potential profit in it but its up to you.
