I got 2 threads, where my skype is written in my thread design, just for this, so you can't get scammed by an impostor.

Then, you have to confirm via HF when you're dealing with someone off-site.

Please make sure always to avoid such mistakes in the future.

You've accused me of something I did not do, and I would not scam someone, business is business, I am not a kid to steal someones funds.

You can't send me a message telling me that 2-3 dollars are missing? You deserve to be scammed at this point, if few dollars make your mouth talk so dirty, then forget about those as a lesson.

Everyone who dealt with me for 3 years, did not complained. And even you, you got your payment within 5 minutes. But you call me a mother fucker?
