Thread: Scammed \$350 BTC by Motown \(UID=1209782\) and Fried Chicken \(UID=1103397\)

Groot 69 - July 21, 2017, 3:06 pm

So the issue is this. I was selling MY BTC for THEIR PAYPAL. I was selling the user " Fried Chicken " $350 in BTC for $380 PayPal. Well I didn't feel comfortable going first so we decided on a MM. Our MM that was chosen was the user " Motown ". So we discussed the deal in skype in a chat and then all proof of payments were sent to " Motown " through HF PMS. Well I didn't send my BTC to the MM until he stated he got the PayPal from Fried Chicken. So I did that, and then all of a sudden he says that his paypal is getting an "error" and he can't send the money. Then " Fried Chicken" stops talking and im asking Motown for my btc back since he is the MM and he says that he still has it and he tells me he can't give me my money back because he needs permission from Fried Chicken to "cancel" the deal. That's bullshit! So here are screenshots as it goes.

IF YOU NEED ANY OTHER INFORMATION ASK ME AND I WILL GET IT! I would like this resolved with me getting my money back. That's all I want. I don't want anyone banned because i'm not that way, but if I don't get my money back actions need to be taken. Please and Thank you!

They're not going to give your money back.

You dealt with 2 scammers and end up getting scammed. You should have read the neg reps + searched their UIDs. This is completely your fault. As harsh as it sounds, it is entirely your fault for not looking up who these users are.

SIM-2273342 - July 21, 2017, 3:09 pm

The MM you used has 6 disputes on him alone....

welp he can't do anything about it now

OneEightSeven - July 21, 2017, 3:10 pm

Didn't you check his trust scan? <http://prntscr.com/fypa11>

I remember motown, his name is very familiar. (remember previously he scammed someone)

Danny Khalifa - July 21, 2017, 3:10 pm

Why the hell you used a middleman with 300 rep?

That's funny.

Sorry for your loss.

Zexo - July 21, 2017, 3:12 pm

He's been known to scam in the past.

can't use trust scan. Not the proper rank. So I couldn't do that.

and yeah I fucked up.

well looks like im shit out of luck.

why havent they been banned yet? Like from the past ones....

OneEightSeven - July 21, 2017, 3:27 pm

If only we found each other. I got scammed trying to sell $476 BTC this morning.

Sorry this happens to you. It fucking sucks!
Karma will get them back!

I hope so. Don't you just love people like this that fuck it up for everyone else! Where everyone has trust issues and can't trust anyone or anything.

Rubixa - July 21, 2017, 3:33 pm

Pretty stupid mate.. learn from it. I left a neg. Sorry for your loss.

Staff doesn't get involved with deal disputes so its rare for them to get banned.

Sorry for your loss. Hopefully you get this resolved.

Ultra Instinct - July 21, 2017, 6:59 pm

Only MM I trust on this site is Minimalist. I won't use anyone else but him. Anyways, sorry this happened to you bud.

Yin Yang - July 21, 2017, 7:06 pm

Why would you exchange with an unknown MM? I've never heard of that dude before boniastar - July 21, 2017, 7:11 pm

I have a question, my intention is not to divert the subject of this scam accusation, but why can't you check the trust scan? me as an epic user I can check any trust scan normally, or is that the leet users can't use the trust scan? that doesn't have any sense if is that way.

I'm with you with this one he's the best to MM and if Minimalist not available I preffer not to deal wit someone if I don't trust them, is better to lose a deal, than being scammed.

L33T don't have access to the trust scan. Only Ub3r and 3P1C

Neal Caffrey - July 22, 2017, 2:44 am

Ah, the classic 'use my friend as a middleman' scam.

Sorry for your loss dude.

Yes they do, if you're dealing with someone even when they have 6 reports open then you deserve to get scammed because you knew it was coming.

yeah OP you really must enjoy trading with scammers

ICUP - July 22, 2017, 7:58 am

Well, that was silly of you. 300 rep for a MM is already a red flag. Lel.

Rubixa - July 22, 2017, 7:05 pm

I left a neg on him for this thread and he pms me saying he's never dealt with me and I randomly negged him for no reason and got his friend to neg me also hahaha. Fucking kids on HF I swear.
Insert crying face emoji

MrKazama - July 23, 2017, 11:37 pm

Sorry for your loss OP, But you should have gone through his rep and deal disputes properly.

Titou31 - July 27, 2017, 10:43 am

scammed too... 40$ for bots

LiamGallagher - December 23, 2017, 4:21 am

Be careful!! This user was contacting me with the name "Big Easy". This real Big Easy guy is a trusted exchanger on this site. Also their profile where almost exactly the same. BE VERY CAREFUL!!!!

Motown_Temp - December 23, 2017, 8:41 am

Hey, could you PM me. This is not me someone hacked my account and would like to gather whatever information you have on them.
