I've been trying to apply online, nobody responds. Its not as simple as just getting a job.

cefo - July 22, 2017, 1:10 pm

HF and other forums with marketplaces should simply be supplementing your main income. Unless you're banking off your products and services

D?ath - July 22, 2017, 5:30 pm

Just converted to ETH, gonna do that every other paycheck ;)

Mr. Robot - July 22, 2017, 5:33 pm

Good job for a youngling, but go to college so you don't have to be broke.

Don't apply online unless you are applying for a highly specialized job. If you are like this guy and work at McDonald's or some other horrible job, walk in with a resume.

D?ath - July 22, 2017, 6:07 pm

Ill make an ebook soon. Dont care if yall want it or not

I vouch for this method, I've been doing it for quite a while and it's provided me with a steady income.

D?ath - August 2, 2017, 9:14 am

Hope you all get this method to work for you!

nooooooooooooo that sounds like a lot of work..

(every HF'er)

Eagle 95 - August 2, 2017, 10:30 am

You do realize that, in some countries that's like a half of monthly pay? Not everyone are born in first world countries so actually staying inside & earning, as well as on hackforums (some earn here for a living) can be beneficial. That can generate a lot more compared to average salary in that person's country so your half-advice doesn't stick. ?

Yes, I got triggered. ?

SIM-403479 - August 2, 2017, 12:29 pm

I have a job and use HF at the same time.

Vape. - August 2, 2017, 12:33 pm
