Thread: Anyone listen to Blackbear?

Sonata - July 22, 2017, 5:40 pm

Recently, all I've been listening to, SO FUCKING GOOD.

He combines like 5 genres and his tracks can sound like they are by completely different artists because his style is so unique.

If anyone wants some recommendations to check him out;

(Just my playlist with, in my opinion, his best tracks.)

PS: If you have heard of "Mansionz", that's a duo project with him and Mike Posner.

I love him and Eden. I like Do Re Mi right now! I do however prefer Eden because of the song "Wake Up"

I've known about eden for a while and went through a phase of loving him but hadn't really liked him in a while. Just went back and listened to him and god damn hes good lmao. Just added him to my playlist.

Couldn't agree more on The Eden Project, he's a fantastic artist. Wish more people knew about him and his work.
