Thread: Scammed by Mon3y Office Exploit Builder uid=123689

Phantom Aboki - July 24, 2017, 5:10 pm

I think it is time I made this report.

link to sales thread <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5321276>

I bought an office exploit builder from Mon3y, he stated on his sales thread "4. The product may not be 100% FUD at all times (Max of 1-3 detections), I am constantly updating to remain FUD, but updates take time."

However days after purchasing it, I never got below 5 detection which I complained to him about. I attached screenshots of my conversations with him.

He also said he was getting fud results but every other users I PMed said they were getting detections just like me but Mon3y was the only one getting fud results from the same builder which has settings of only the build button.

After many days he said he released an update and I downloaded the new builder but it wasn't opening. The issue lingered for several days and I sent him PMs and emails about it which he was always too busy to reply.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

For more than 2 weeks I was unable to use his product after paying for it as you can see in the conversation. After finally he was able to fix it and get it working for me.

Also you should take note that despite all these frustrations from him, I never posted my complains on his sales thread even when he goes for days without replying my emails and PMs yet he was always posting on his thread asking new customers to still buy his non working tool.

The next problem I had with him was after I gave +reps to some HF members. Which has nothing to do with his TOS. He banned my license and neg repped me. See screenshots for your ref. I emailed him about it and he replied and gave me the reason why he banned my license as you all can see.

I politely reminded him that my repping any member has nothing to do with his TOS and asked him to restore the product I paid for but he stopped replying to my messages. I sent him reminders through PMs and emails but he ignored them. I posted reminders on his sales thread that I sent him emails and PMs so he could check but he still did not reply.

The below screenshots are the reminders I sent on his sales thread after he ignored my emails and PMs. If those posts are called flaming or sale thrashing, I need someone to please inform me.

When he saw potential customers commenting that some users don't seem happy about his product he now turned around and said I broke his TOS and flaming on his sales thread that was the reason he banned me. See his comment in the screenshot below. Initially he said he banned me because I +repped some members, not he said he banned me because I abuse his TOS and flaming on his product. How laughable.

See neg rep he gave me and the reason he stated.

Here he stated I broke MULTIPLE of his TOS he banned me after countless warnings

The issue of -rep happened ~2 months ago, why bring it up now?
Either way, hope your issue gets resolved with Mon3y amicably.

Boolean type - July 25, 2017, 1:53 am

Hey there is nothing what you can do, I bought it as well few months ago and it was NEVER fud for me. Usually it has over 10 detections. I don't care about this anymore. It's just sad to see that he still advertise it as FUD ;/

Teleforce - July 25, 2017, 3:02 am

He is just a cheap scammer, no thing more.

Phantom Aboki - July 25, 2017, 4:27 am

I keep getting PMs from other members who say they bought his product and regretted it because they failed to read reviews and comments on his thread. I don't want anyone contacting me about it again if they can't take their time to read through posts before wasting their money.

Truly. The guy is a real scammer. I notice how he always delete some comments from his thread. As soon as someone post that he wants to buy, Mon3y will reply immediately but when someone email him for support he will ignore the person and claim to not see the messages.

On top of it, his exploits are pure trash . His silent add-on is just a VBS script, no one is stupid enough to download and run VBS Script. Even most email providers will mark it and block it as threat.

This is not true. There are many positive members of this community, and you are not one. All you are doing is spreading hate and disgust. Stop for a second. Think. If he was really scamming people, wouldn't Omni take down his thread that has been up for 5 YEARS? What about all the other happy customers he has served? I was having some problems before with getting it to open, but then I realized it was ME making the mistake. I worked it out with him, and cleared it up. Very friendly user and doesn't deserve all of this hate from you. I highly suggest you WORK IT OUT with him. Or start a law suit.

Thank you.

Did you bother to read read my conversation with him and his replies?

If yes, can you tell me from all you ready the reason why he banned me?

Was it because I broke his TOS, flammed on his thread or because I gave +rep to other members? what has that got to do with his TOS?

If you cannot read and chose to be a puppet to that idiotic scammer, then shut the fu*k up until you get some brains.

HE IS A SCAMMER and I'll keep discouraging people from buying his shitty product. Since you're happy about his product, why not show me on TV how it works for you. Get a life bro and stop being a stooge for that shitty kid.

This is another thread of him scamming someone else. If you break your own TOS and yet ban people for no reason after taking their money isnt that ripping them off? So I should never rep any use on hf because I bought a product from Mon3y?

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5274742>

By the way, I'm waiting. Soon you'll open you'll just the list and scream that you were scammed by mon3y. I'll remind of this post you made for him.

You obviously didn't read any of the proof OP posted, I too was scammed by Money... He may have once had a great office exploit builder, but now it's a shit product that is very quickly detected. Money is a total cunt, I lost $130 to that piece of shit. He promised me a refund if he didn't fix the builder, and I asked him for one after weeks of waiting. He proceeded to ignore me, block me, then give me bad rep before I said anything bad about him or his product. I don't even have access to the builder anymore. He claims I broke ToS which is total bullshit, he is a pathetic low life that sells an old product.

Money releases occasional FUD updates, but these fud updates only last a few hours, before the exploit is redetected by 10 or more antiviruses.

efranz10 - August 9, 2017, 1:38 am this is the norm now even from people you have worked with overtime.....it takes patience to deal with them..

JustMe1337 - August 28, 2017, 5:16 am

Nice, bought this product on Friday now and didn't received it yet.
Hope that i'll get this and that this will work now.

Dont want to that 130USD are wasted.. :/

B4NN3D - August 28, 2017, 5:33 am

why is no admin responding to this ? is there something like a moderation on this board ? i mean there was a scam report 2016

without any response from an admin

Hopefully I think you will receive your product from Mon3y, but that is the least of your problem. Your forthcoming problems are; you will never get fud and when you start complaining he will ban your license saying you broke his TOS.

So in essence, YOU REALLY JUST WASTED YOUR 130$ on this SCAMMER called MON3Y.
Goodluck to you.

This surprises me too. They are just encouraging the kid to continue scamming others.

freed00m - August 30, 2017, 5:59 pm

he is a scammer i also scammed by him

B4NN3D - September 6, 2017, 3:00 pm

push

just a very good information too all users

graceland - September 8, 2017, 10:59 pm

Money is a scammer and his fucking group are the ones making positive comments about him, everything about his exploit is fake, almost all avs detect his exploit no matter how you encrypt it. Dont buy that crab rather use a free exploit than wasting money on that shit

martigo333 - September 11, 2017, 6:09 pm

Yes I vouch to that he scammed me of lifetime license and never replies me after purchase..

So funny what I just came across. It seems this same guy sucking Mon3y's dick has falling out with him, I noticed he accused Mon3y of infecting him with a RAT...lol

Bro why will you say that? Why are you spreading hate and disgust? I thought he was one of the positive people on here, why will he infect you with a RAT?

Grow up dude

am a withness samething happened to me

js2017 - September 22, 2017, 1:21 am

hi

i am planning to purchase a office exploit. However, the review here make me worry if i will loose my money. Can someone guide where to reliable purchase exploit pack which is FUD.

thanks in advance

Universe_X - October 3, 2017, 4:52 am

that same dude I asked a while ago about his doc and now i'm glad I wasted his time and did not buy from him even when I had the btc too. main reason: silent addon might as well be the new macro lol shit looked gay as fuq

Finally got a full refund from the seller.
Closing this dispute.
Thanks.
