Thread: How I am making \$200-500 a day by Advertising 6-10 hours a day! Not a ebook etc.

EnigmaCenter - July 24, 2017, 5:14 pm

I am just excited about my project but I have got into the edu shop that I am just going to explain what I have done to make money off this.

I hired someone to make me a bot that auto registers to colleges and then I started getting emails coming in. It was going good but I needed to figure out where to sell. Thankfully after many researching I found a lot of places to sell at.

I also recently hit a milestone of 500 .edus sold in a day!

What I was selling:

I was selling fresh .edu accounts which I can generate roughly 200 .edus a day which got pretty crazy. It offered many benefits for users.

What are the benefits my clients were getting:

The 3 main focuses people were really after is the Github Education, Unlimited Google Drive, Amazon Prime, and the Office365. I was also offering them at cheap prices

Where I was selling:

- Local buy/sell groups on facebook
- subreddits mainly around torrent/seeders
- multiple forums
- local businesses
- Reseller Packages

How I was selling it:

Local buy/sell groups on facebook: - I started joining buy and sell groups in my local community on facebook which I was able to sell these packages for $25 each via paypal to people. I even met a few individuals for custom names in bulk where they handing me cash in hand. It was a pretty cool experience.

subreddits mainly around torrent/seeders: This is honestly where my main income came from. I joined a few torrenting/seeders reddit and invite only sites and promoted my unlimited google drive there as seedboxers use a custom torrent daemon that links directly to google drive which they pay $10/month for unlimited storage. I came to them for a lifetime deal which honestly word by mouth from buyers lead me to getting other contacts and fast sales.

multiple forums: I joined multiple forums which honestly was really hard at first because you actually are trying to sell something like this and you are new so people are hesitant at first. I had a few sites that did not like it but there were a few that allowed it. All in all it was alright. I eventually hosted a discord server after this which made me a lot of clients from multiple forums.

local businesses: I approached multiple people locally who did office work and offered them lifetime office for $50 and they were more than happy to buy a few. I only made about $300 from this because most business kind of declined me but it still was worth it.

Reseller Packages: This was some of the bread and butter for me. I was generating way too much edus to the point I was offering resellers packages. I would sell 100+ edus for $1-0.50 each to people. As of this moment I have about 4 resellers across multiple sites

Biggest struggle:

The only thing that was holding me back was the fact that I had to manually go through the emails to get the email:pass for newly generated .edus but thankfully after I got in a few contacts I was able to get a bot that auto reads my emails and outputs the email:pass in .json format. After that everything just started skyrocketing.

Conclusion:

Overall I have to say that my efforts I put into this made me some good money and I am now stably making about 300-400 a day due to certain partnerships. I do have a major deal with someone that is going to make a major increase but its still in the working.

You bought what? This is not a ebook thread

Vape. - July 29, 2017, 3:01 am

Are you selling reseller packages here? I'm interested. Pm me.

Damn, that is very nice way of thinking. Happy to see you doing well.

How much did you pay for that bot (or to that developer to code you a bot)?

Thanks.

good and fresh strategy

but I like more your mining Monroe's journey

you closed the thread there and I had some question about getting xmrminer.com invite kiranote - September 10, 2017, 5:12 am

Nice Stratgegy, actually, u give me an inspiration. thanks for this ghostman10 - September 10, 2017, 12:40 pm

How do you create @edu's?

marissane - September 12, 2017, 5:14 pm

motivates thried,are selling that botor what?

ari3ll - April 19, 2018, 5:42 pm

Uhh. THANK YOU. You're a genius.

I didn't had this idea about subreddit with torrent/seeder people. I hacked many private trackers in the last years and I have many accounts and users database left. Maybe I could monetize this.

Thanks again :)

Gz.

I'd really like to start doing this manually,but how to generates this in safe?

Which site?

Tor + VPN?

JayJay709 - April 25, 2018, 7:59 pm

please let me in on this. id love to take part and even split profit

zigsonn - January 24, 2019, 7:13 am

Congrats! Hope you're still doing this

LoveOverFear - January 24, 2019, 2:37 pm

Congrats dude looks dope, mind telling me profitable Facebook groups?? Pm it if you want to keep it private if not , well thanks.

Wait, what are you offering him though? ?

OP, how much did the bot cost and where did you go to find someone to code it? I know a bit of python so I might polish up my skills and learn to make bots like this myself.

Good share, there are some good twists possible with this.
