<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5665379>

He already had a community dispute and a lot of drama because he got kicked out of Consensus and misappropriating Consensus funds. I stood up for him all the way, but I must have been an idiot again, because he is (now) clearly not a good person. A thread where user Riyu bashed him for scamming someone for $100 with a fake method, then he cried about how he would have been having his family threatened and killed and all that -- I was the only one who stood up for him... and he goes ahead and scams me.

He was selling SE method on-site, and he said that he would refund everyone involved. I guess I wasn't included because he closed the thread and took the deal off-site!

Images:

proof, but this is self-explanatory for those who are aware of the issue already anyway (Click to View)

The ultimatum came when he just did what every other scammer does:

"<insert dumb reason here that is entirely irrelevant>, I am not going to refund you."

I hate you Lookin!!! Playing me like that!!

Yeah, I buy something he sold, I didn't even know it wasn't allowed on the forum until a DD was open against him and they said so. By then I already tried the method (it failed, btw, thats why this is open).

Also, he blatantly lied in his thread: "it does not involve SE"

He said that he would "take care of everyone", but clearly, I am not being taken care of! And I have been super ultra nice to him because Fade trusted him!

DOG - July 25, 2017, 1:05 am

OP you are new in this forum and you got scammed 3 times already oO

Can you stop buying stuff here ...

And i'm really sorry for this situation!

Edit : if he is not resolving this, pm me and I'll help you :)

Stashyy - July 25, 2017, 1:05 am

You bought a steelseries method which is public and spread all over. xd also like the member above said, stop buying SHIT on hf.

hopeforme - July 25, 2017, 1:09 am

I bought it because my good man Fade vouched for him and he was Consensus leader and I thought that he would be legit this time...

NOPE. Got scammed again. Luckily this time only $50. ----> he probably turned bad because he got kicked out of consensus despite being a leader and became permanently salty holy fuck, this never ends.

He does not intend to resolve this, he said so very clearly by discord.

Maybe Fade got scammed by him too, but I'm sure he has no time to care about such petty change as $50. And he is busy on vacation

I'll be adding this to DD database in 24 hours. Lookin's DD db is clean for now, I'll be nice (again, hopefully not mistakenly) by waiting 24 hours to put it in

They probably got through halfway like me, then vouched early or something. He wanted me to do so too before I was done; I said that I won't vouch until I was 100% in the clear.

Yeah after he typed that crap line as well as other junk like "you haven't been trying" it was clear from that point that he had no intention to refund and would find any bullshit excuse to not do so.

At least he stopped equivocating eventually and just told me in my face so we stopped wasting time.

This deal is offsite, and I said I would sort out this situation with you OFFSITE. You started making rumors on here, and started trying to put me in a bad spot. I offered you that I would help you out, and if that did not work out, we would figure something else out. As soon as you started saying I 'scammed you' on Hack Forums is what caused me to cut all communication with you. I do not want to affiliate myself with someone who does not try to listen, and takes my assistance for granted.

hopeforme - July 25, 2017, 3:34 am

All false. I did nothing but help you and stand up for you, until you fucked me with this bullshit and insulted me by telling me I didn't try. You cut communication with me and gave the classic scammer's ultimatum "hurr durr I won't refund you and there's nothing you can do about it" which forced my hand to make this DD.

Rumours were started against you even without my involvement. That's no excuse to not refund. In fact, there is never an excuse to not refund if product does not work and/or you said that you would refund if it doesn't work.

"I will not refund anyone who doesn't try"

How about "I will not refund anyone who is a weeb"? It really means the same thing.

ITT: "I won't refund you cos you ruined my reputation" "have more patience" "I won't refund a whiny bitch"

Doesn't matter if its offsite. It originated from HF. Even if you never even confirmed via PM. Just having a thread selling the product is enough to file a deal dispute on you.

Everytime a group leader makes a sales thread sometimes members from that group get asked to vouch/bump it happens all the time.

Mycroft Holmes - July 25, 2017, 4:08 am

Lookin, get the fuck out and refund OP mate. You blatantly lied that the method you sell is not SE.

You owe OP a refund yet you still have a pathetic excuse "As soon as you started saying I 'scammed you' on Hack Forums is what caused me to cut all communication with you."

Let me put this in perspective for you. You buy from Amazon and the item delivered is not as described. You try to get a refund and go ahead and post on forums that Amazon is piece of crap. Should Amazon now be pissed off and "cut off all communications"?

Pretty much this. As long as your interest and initial discovery of the product is on HF prior to purchase, it can be considered on-site even if you go offsite for contact. Selly.gg, Rocketr,net etc. All of those are considered deal disputable.

I got close. Got my coupon code and all the good stuff, then when I made the order they cancelled it.

I got "unlucky" as Lookin said. Still, feels awful, like almost going to win a league game, destroying the enemy's inhibitor, then getting gimped and the opponent comebacks and suddenly losing.

Then scumbag just trolls me and tries to loophole his way out of this by going "trololol it's offsite you can't do shit to me".

Thank you, the good people of the HF community, for clarifying that loophole does not hold valid here. Because that would be ultra fucked up.

Lookin appears to have no intention to refund, I'll be surprised if he did.

It's only $50, but what the problem is how he made me very angry;

I'm sure he also made other consensus members very angry too. Very very angry.

I was playing league while he sent me those junk and I was tilted the rest of the game, due to no fault of my teammates. Can you imagine that!
