I guess things happen, but it seems more like he was trying to buy it then selling it for higher value.
Correct me if I'm wrong, please.

Jesus Christ. They were right when they said you would be cancerous as an owner. Why must you always prove the critics right, Nex?

Yeah, we all know that. You like to flaunt that money you apparently have; however, you asked for a fucking payment plan to buy the group at first. A payment plan. Come on, stop acting like you're a big shot. Stick to your ebooks, you clearly don't know marketing nor do you know business; you won't get anywhere near even $6.5k for this.

Anyways, GLWS.

Lmao, there goes the broke boy trying to flaunt his lack of money. Stick to that twelve month payment plan you needed bud.

I don't waste my time going for awards when other people pay me to get them for them. EDIT: Won't leak this part, actually like the guy.

I'm not mad, said GLWS. Just saying that you're making yourself look like a retard. I'll stop posting though, you can PM me if your ego is hurting that badly.
