

Forum:Hack Forums

Thread: KonoSuba Gets New Anime Project! | Ohtalku News #16

Black Hole - July 29, 2017, 8:23 am

Hey everyone, goods news all around in this week's Ohtalku News! KonoSuba new anime project announced, new Angel Beats Manga in October and the Gintama Live-Action Movie has been killing it in Japan! Listen to more in the video below and read more about it at the link at the bottom! Enjoy!

<https://ohtalku.com/konosuba/>

<https://ohtalku.com/mangaka-for-gintama-reveals-his-personal-recommendations-for-the-live-action/>

Mr.Cat - July 29, 2017, 3:05 pm will it be made by the same people who made the first one?

Happeh - July 30, 2017, 10:09 am

(Jul 29, 2017 03:05 PM)Mr.Cat Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) will it be made by the same people who made the first one?

More than likely. No news on the studio selling rights so there's no reason why it shouldn't be.

?ictor? - July 31, 2017, 1:20 am

Voice actors Jun Fukushima and Rie Takahashi, of the comedy fantasy anime known as KonoSuba announced that the light novel "KonoSuba – God's blessing on this wonderful world!!" is starting to inspire a new anime project. Nothing has been released and no information is known about this new anime project, but some speculate that there could be a new season, a continuation of the last two seasons. If you don't know about this anime, here is a synopsis of what it is about.

The original light novels centers on Kazuma, a shut-in student who dies in a traffic accident, but meets the goddess Aqua after death. He is given the chance to reincarnate in a fantasy world and can keep one thing with him. When he decides to choose Aqua herself, they are both transported to their new lives. The pair go on quests to earn just enough to buy food, shelter, and clothing, and eventually hire the sorceress Megumin and swordswoman Darkness, who they quickly learn are just as useless as they are. >>Source

rid9 - August 7, 2017, 7:59 am

I hope it is a new season for konosuba. The light novel is really good.