Hello all my HF members!

Scammers Profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2172949>

The Novel:

This user contacted me asking if i needed any school work done and i told him that i actually had a college course done. He seemed very eager to earn money and since we`ve done deals in the past i decided to go with it. Typically the deals we did in the past he get the assignment done first then id pay but since he was doing a whole course for this time we decided that id pay half up front. Through the 3 day span he clearly didn't take it seriously. He would say i never told him there were writing assignment but as you guys can see i told him on multiple occasions there are. I reminded him multiple times. He continued to play dumb and wouldn't refund my money when i asked him nicely. I proceed to give him another chance and he fails to submit again and does horribly on quizzes he stated he did. I just want my 62$ btc back, but he says he won't refund. Ive posted our whole conversation hence all the gyazo links(i apologize lol). If there is anything i may add let me know!

Proof i sent him payment:

Conclusion: Toward the end he never turned in the assignment, i had to cause he was ignoring me. Also didn't complete the 400 dollar paper(ill attach what he sent me, his half ass effort). At this point Ive given up..told him keep the money (obviously sarcastically hoping he'd just refund) but he ignored me. In the end he's already stated that he will not return my btc. Its sad that people on this site literally have to take 60$ bucks from people. Sad thing is him and i have done many deals in the past and with this one i think he thinks he could just take my money and i wouldn't do anything about it. As you guys can see he's done close to nothing and has failed the only two quizzes he has taken for me and found it difficult to submit assignments. I just want my refund, if not he doesn't deserve to be on this site. He`s already screwed a lot of people over and is disliked by over 70 people on this forum.

Hopefully Justice Is Served

Microsoft Agent #3180 - July 31, 2017, 6:09 pm

Seems like a legit report. Good luck resolving

Eagerkid - July 31, 2017, 6:10 pm

ugh, I should get paid for wasting my time doing this. Anyone who says this is a "legit" report is a retard, No one has enough evidence to side with anyone. I will upload everything I have too as this is ridiculous and as always I will be screwed since I am not wasting even more time on this shit (time = money)

Edit: I honestly dont even know how to reply, I did the assignment Sean is a complete retard, and I didnt play dumb. He didnt even send me the right assignment, look through the messages he sent me the writing assignment and it was COMPLETELY off from the one on the site. Do I seriously have to be a fucking rocket sciences to do this assignment? This retard didnt even do the previous assignments which were ESSENTIAL for the assignments. Also, I was not to do EVERY thing, only half as he paid for half. Then this idiot says he doesnt care, after I proved him wrong and explained I did the right assignments and the quiz on the correct day. If you dont think this user is harassing me, then I dont know what harassment is anymore. This dude has been messaging me non stop and wont leave me alone, and is extremely rude. Look through my messages and tell me if you see a rude one, because you wont.

YOU WILL NEVER RECEIVE A REFUND, I DID THE WORK AND YOU WERE A COMPLETE DOUGHEBAG.

Another edit: I couldnt find where to upload the paper because I have never used the software before, I sent you the assignment though via skype.

I sent you the paper with lots of time left, we live in different time zones retard so I sent you the paper before 11PM my time, and I am 3 hours ahead of you so you had 4 hours to do whatever you want to it. If I dont message you within 2 minutes you cry like the little bitch that you are.

You want to exit scam for 60 fucking dollars LMFAO? that's actually ridiculous that you'd put someone through this for $60, you could have told him you were incapable of doing this originally and just taken his money instead of fucking him @OP you shouldn't have hired a fucking gradeschooler named Eagerkid to do your homework, you're also fully exposing your name/login for your college, lmao you realize you could get fucked if this were made public/sent to your school right?

how is that a scam report? We didnt agree on a grade, and I did everything with the information I was given. I completed the assignments I was supposed to and then Sean said "forget about it, do the next assignment"

Would love to see how this is actually a scam, he didnt pay for the whole thing and I did exactly what I was paid to do.

So only doing a percentage of agreed assignments and completely BOMBING/FAILING the others isn't a fucking scam? LOOOOL?

You essentially could have taken his fucking money and written in spam/bullshit and that would have just been okay right?

Don't try to defend yourself with bullshit logic like that, childish as fuck.

Thanks for your response. Yes i exposed it but i've already changed my log in etc.

But again thanks for realizing Eagerkid is the "retard" here. i've posted everything. literally everything. i showed everyone the assignment you claimed to submit but didn't. also showed how great he did on the quizzes. I'm not gonna get my money back and that's fine cause i know he desperately need it. But you don't deserve to be on this site. I showed everyone the document you sent me for a second chance. You didnt even give me the right document. I did nothing wrong and your only trying to defame me, but I only deal with somewhat intelligent members on this site. So if someone thinks I am scamming by doing the assignments like I was serviced to do, then they arent people I will deal with.

The fact that he can even defend himself on this thread when he got scores in 30-40 percentiles on your assignments is actually fucking ridiculous. On another thread he claims to manage a $1m gaming company but is here scamming for $60 Imfao...

You're scamming by not successfully completing his assignments, you completely failed them. Can you not get that through your thick ass skull?

You FAILED the job, both in results & in the amount of assignments done. He's entitled to a refund and you're entitled to be a scamming retard so I guess that's the end all of this thread.

Thanks, I didnt think I was such a celebrity that these kids would spend their whole lives posting on every single one of my threads. TBH I think they get a boner when they see my name pop up on a thread. Everyone who has a service should say "eagerkid controversy oh yeah and I am selling bitcoin" and they will get 100k views.

To stay on topic,

Someone please explain how this is a SCAM REPORT. I did the service, I wasnt give the right information. The user told me to just keep going. No grade was agreed on. I did half the work which was paid for. I have done a least 30 assignments for this bone head and each one he was a least a week behind in the payment. But lets forget that, and just read the limited information that this user gave you

Edit: as of right now he is only defaming me by calling me a scammer which I am not. This is totally out of line, and if everyone wants to never deal with me again on anything that is fine. But I will not have a "scammer" thread opened on me as I did not leave with the service or break our terms.

Another edit : BTW this is 100% different than if someone makes a thread about me shitting on me. This is so much more aggravating because people will scroll by without clicking and be misinformed.

Sean Taylor - July 31, 2017, 8:54 pm

I did complete the assignment and then you said " just do the rest" why the hell wouldnt you open a dispute there. If I was a dickhead I would email your professor. (I have the screen shots of our conversations but am not going to waste my time posting them)But I am not that type of guy, just want you to know that. So while you are defaming me, just know in the back of your head you are bashing a guy that did the work he was given and completed the service.

This isnt even about the money, I wont be run over by you. I took it long enough, we completed so many deals and you were late on every single one of them. So take a step back and truly evaluate yourself.

Not every day I have to remove someone on skype that is messaging me every minute, harassing me about working and having a life outside of HF.

I will only be responding to Sean on this thread, as everything will go off topic and I am not wasting anymore of my time.

Sean Taylor - July 31, 2017, 9:06 pm

No problem,

This has NOTHING to do with the money. I completed the service and OP was a complete dick. I didn't even look through the pictures, but I am guessing he doesn't have any messages of him harassing me.

Like I have said a few times, I have done many assignments for him and even told him I didnt really wanna do this because he was awful at paying me. Then of course he opens a report on me when I make him pay half upfront.

I honestly have no problem with Sean. He is just a very unpleasant person online.

I can understand that mate and I also understand he didn't mention a grade but I am sure he hired you to surely to pass the assignments? If that wasn't the case he was better of not even submitting anything.
