To me you're one of the best vector artists on this forum and I've been lowkey appreciating your work for a while now.

I have a feeling you own a tablet, am I right? I've seen your website and some works appear to have some techniques that usually require a tablet.

Bright future ahead of you if you follow this path. You have learned great techniques that can be easily applied when using a tablet, especially with custom paint brushes. Never stop practicing.

Actually you did a fantastic job, I do quite a bit in designing and illustrating. This piece and rest of yours are phenomenal. Are you ever open for hire?

logi22 - August 2, 2017, 12:29 pm

this is rly an awesome artwork. I love the style of your shadow. Keep going
