Not happy with this service. I tried purchasing with BTC and that failed, saying I underpaid even though I sent the exact amount, and then I was sent back a portion of the BTC I paid... not even sure if I got refunded the full amount. Then I tried to pay with Credit Card, and waited all day to receive an email saying they didn't trust my card and asked me to take a picture of my credit card and send it to them. Sure! I guess I won't be buying it. Thanks.

anyway all order u made has been refunded and we are using shopify platorm all orders have Risk analysis its mean shopify u can detect your order is fruad or not and all orders has been refundable u can refund anytime.

this why i ask u credit card copy or something like coz i must review all orders if order might be fruadulent.
