Hi all,

I'm a digital painter and I'm looking to improve my portrait skills. I will do quick sketches and basic rendering of pictures you provide for me, whether it is you or anyone else.

But please, don't send me any pornographic pictures, because I will not do those.

If you're unfamiliar with digital painting, it's basically painting, but on the computer. I use Photoshop for it.

Please send me the picture you'd like me to have a go at. Keep in mind that the resolution is not too small (I need to be able to see some details), and that it's not too blurred.

Can you draw like this?

Malevolent - August 2, 2017, 6:25 pm

Can you draw me more colorful/better version of the header + three slideshow pictures on this site?

If you mean the cartoonish style; no. I draw semi-realistic.

I'm not sure what you mean, sure I can draw some banners, but do you have examples of what it is you want?

Do you have any of your works to show us?

Of course!

I currently don't have any portraits, but anything I've made (mostly studies), can be found here:

Yes, there are examples on my DA: <http://snowchugger.deviantart.com/>

No portraits yet, that's what I'm trying to practice :)

I'm gonna give this a go when I'm done cooking, I'll update you with the progress later.

I've finished the piece for Effexion. I'll be working on my next piece, from Shady, now.

Absolutely stunning work. Getting this printed off for my wall. So happy with your work, thanks so much, Snowchugger.

I technically need a ton of it actually.
It's art for my upcoming ORPG.

Hi, thank you for posting. I'm afraid this is too much work to take on for free, for anyone. I'd suggest you'd find a paid artist to care of this for you.

A little update.

I'm currently working on two pieces for the user Shady. Any progress can be seen on my DA:

Currently accepting more requests.
