Hello, have you heard about Sunny Beach, Bulgaria ? Nope ??

Sunny Beach is basically the cheap version of Ibiza. It's 24/7 party here. You can have a lot of fun? Maybe wanna check ? <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BbzViURZj8E>

Here everything is extremely cheap and even low budget people can have great time here.

What am I offering ?

-I am here the whole summer

-I can find you a hotel on a great price

-I can take you around here (visit different clubs with you, have fun together)

-I can do anything so you have a great time here (girls, everything you want)

If you are interested in that service let me know how I can help you and we will negotiate it, I promise you will all have great fun and never forget this summer !

Here is my current customer who came 2 days ago desires.

1. To get him an Iphone 6 battery. (I already did that)
2. To get him a discount on 2 watter bananas
- 3.To bring one of his kids to a dentist to whiten their teeth
- 4.The guy wants to visit a good club so I will bring him to one of the best clubs here and then lead him to a hotel with 2 pretty women. He wants to party :P

I like what I am doing, people are having fun and I must make them have fun which is also fun :D

I don't know. What's an average cost you would say. I literally have no friends who would even be able to afford the plane ticket lol
