Thread: [\[INVITE\] Unlimited Free Domain Names - 160+ domains a year Free!! \[4/5 invites sold\]](#)

EnigmaCenter - August 3, 2017, 1:59 pm

Hey guys I am just going to keep this short

I am selling access to a portal that gives you unlimited domain name registration for free. You can get about 160 domain names free a year (10+ domains a month).

This will last you a lifetime as I been using this for about 4 years. It does not involve anything blackhat related and is completely legit.

I am selling invites for $100 each.

Domains are configured to auto renew (you can disable)

this works for .com/.net/.org/.biz/.co.uk

[4 invites sold / 1 left]

Disclaimer:

I have control over invites (revoking access) in case of any disputes.

Payments:

Btc/Paypal

TOS:

Purchase is Final

If paying via Paypal and you chargeback you are giving me permission to revoke your invite denying you request to the portal

I WILL BE CONNECTING VIA TEAMVIEWER TO SHOW/SETUP FOR YOU

Sold Invites: 2 invites left

Renewal is free
You pay for nothing after you get the invite.

I'm sorry but this is impossible, domain registration at it's centralised core costs a minimum of $8 for a .com domain so there is something shady and more than likely fraudulent going on in the background.

The money for the domain has to be coming from somewhere, so my guess is that it is coming from less legal means.

I agree. If it is fraudulent we don't want to be held responsible.

Anyone who has bought an invite from me knows how it works amd its not illegal.

This is 100% legit but i see your point.
