Atleast 85% will end up in the inbox. It depends what email provider you are using. For example, Gmail has very good spam filtering and you would probably get 85-95% in the inbox. For a provider like mail.com, you can expect 95%+ in the inbox.

Hmu with a vouch copy please.

HighTier - August 3, 2017, 6:55 pm

I will take one of the vouch copies if you find me worthy enough.

I vouch for this. This user spammed an email I provided them with.
