Thread: exchange ur nudes ?

Nachfolger - August 4, 2017, 3:57 pm

I was just deep in thought and i realized a good idea !

what if u could exchange ur nudes anonymously on a website. like u submit ur nudes then another random nude is returned. its like [BRAND NAME REMOVED] but not? would u use it? no faces r required

we could even have a hf group dedicated to sending nudes 2 eachother

Manipulate - August 4, 2017, 3:58 pm

But what if you are straight and get a dick pic in return.

DOUGHBOY BALENCIAGA - August 4, 2017, 4:00 pm

Sounds like an awful idea. People will just send porn pictures.

GameFreak - August 4, 2017, 4:00 pm

How would u know its a nude? What if i upload a pic of my waterbottle?

Faces or no faces, I'm not trying to look at some dick. I'm tryna see some bitties and ass.

Sir Hunningham - August 4, 2017, 4:00 pm

What's the point for doing that... ?

DeadKube - August 4, 2017, 4:01 pm

I would not. Posting nude images of oneself can already be done using so many different websites and tools. Would it be successful? Depends on many factors. As a business model, having a great user experience is a must in your particular case. Distinguishing your tool from the others will either make or break your concept. Be original.

Seems like you'll need to give your pornographical business idea some more thought though. Good luck either way!

Manipulate - August 4, 2017, 4:02 pm

Also count the chances of under the age of 18. Oof I will be waiting for the FBI Deface "Seized by the federal bureau of investigation"

Cagey - August 4, 2017, 4:04 pm

overlude - October 1, 2017, 7:35 am

Sounds a bit strange tbh. There's a bunch of related stuff on reddit. You have some weird fetishes, though.

this is extremely retareaded, wow. !!!

Franky. - October 1, 2017, 12:08 pm

Nah. Nudes are no fun without interaction. Personally for me, photos don't make me tingle. There needs to be a connection.

Alexander - October 1, 2017, 12:42 pm

There is this website where you can upload your nudes, verify yourself to the website administrator(s), and get BTC when people pay to have parts/higher quality of your picture unlocked. Can't remember what it was called, though, and it may have been .onion.

LastSession - October 1, 2017, 12:51 pm

That explains why you are permanently denied.

o hai there - October 1, 2017, 1:30 pm

Eh anonymous nudes is just basic porn, gotta have something attached to the pictures; wether it's knowing the person in real life, or online.

lol unique idea i never heard it before is it really get started? & working? curious just

Armada - October 5, 2017, 12:29 am

This idea would work for 2 reasons.

- 1 - There are more than enough insecure chicks out there willing to expose themselves for acceptance/compliments.
- 2 - Guys like to show their junk off.

Yea, it could work OP lol.... Sadly....

?ystem - October 19, 2019, 1:18 pm

I mean, if I were seriously drunk I might take part in that service, but.. Not sober. Plus there would be an overload of trolls and just obscene stuff shared that it wouldn't be fun. Oh, not to mention how more than likely you would find people under the age of consent using it.

Wiberg - October 19, 2019, 2:24 pm

Sounds like a fun idea don't hurt to make it? ;)

Veninu - October 20, 2019, 7:47 am

Sounds like a great idea, make this idea into a real thing.

u?op ?pisdn - October 20, 2019, 7:50 am

Isn't this what snapchat is made for??

Cuthbert - October 20, 2019, 10:25 am

I think anonymity would still be an issue. For example, starts group on HF, acquires 5 members, 5 members send nudes on the nude website, OP now has all 5 members nudes. Then it becomes a simple game of Guess Who? Or you could dump all 5 nudes on HF and say here you go everyone in x group exposed.

SIM-2327840 - October 20, 2019, 1:49 pm

Why should I want to exchange a nude of mine for one of a HF user?

frsnix - October 20, 2019, 2:02 pm not a bad idea imo, if it were straight up anonymous (and not just exclusive to hf), maybe shove a rating system in there too.

Because there is no proof your the person in the nude photo and exchanging someone else's nudes its called has revenge porn. Having a website were you have to register before you do these "crimes" is a bit risky everything is logged even who owns the website.

For me, it has been £35 well-spent, although the glut of adverts offering it for £25 have been a bit of a kick in the crotch, I could have spent the extra £10 on gin, but it would have been cheap gin, so there would have been no real gain.
