Thread: Is double dipping considered scamming

vapEE - August 5, 2017, 9:15 pm

I double dip most of my transactions and i'm wondering if its okay to, most people say that that scamming isn't good which I don't do, so should I continue to double dip? x2 and maybe x5 the money if I do.

As long as you deliver after it's fine in my opinion

Fiyaa - August 5, 2017, 9:53 pm

Well they really dont know if they're getting double dipped or not, I mean yea why wouldn't it be scamming lol? But they dont know you got that extra currency unless they see it redeemed with amazon, just make up something, haha. Other than that give him what he asked for and you should be fine. :)

I think it's okay to do, sure it's immoral and maybe scamming.. But what they don't know won't hurt em.

l'ts not . just deliver them what you promised.
for example:

I DD a guy. he sent me a $25 then I said to him "I didn't received it, send it again." Then I got $50 off of him.

I just said that . ill make it 25 pics (my price is $2 a pic) and ill just add some bonus pics or short vid. :)

Douple Dip is not good idea cos you can fail everything. If you find a good paying guy it is better to milk them legally :)

Guys (and a girl) you are absolutely stupid if you blindly believe pedo/customer won't see his bank statement/credit card statements later on.

Not to mention they receive a confirmation when you receive your gift cards.

Unless you DD a half brain monkey I don't see how they won't notice!

A lot of us do this like all the time. There are multiple reasons why this works.

He thinks amazon took his payment twice for some reason (never looks into it) he thinks he sent you two, but the other one was delayed, he is too embarrassed too call and say he bought giftcards for an ewhore.

Please don't call people stupid if you haven't done your research or tried this yourself, I have been doing it for years.

i think it's scamming sir because u will get dual payment for only 1 stuff , & i don't think it's good to do if you want him to buy more from you!

PREDATOR - August 6, 2017, 3:47 am

Just add a bonus video and they'll be satisfied and you wonder why your amazon account is banned? wtf ?

Whole ewhoring is scam lol, and if its scam then what ? think only about yourself and your wallet, GL

Yandere - August 6, 2017, 6:40 am

Well it is scamming since you are charging the guy twice for something lol. But as long as you actually delivery your end of the deal it's not as bad as just scamming and not sending pics

?KilluaZoldyck? - August 7, 2017, 8:45 am

It's definitely a scam. I imagine it can be quite troublesome to do these days since they can track the progress of said gift card in their account.
