You said what it doesn't include and you talk about how much money you can make and all these good things but can't even give a little bit of information about what people are going to be actually doing to make money yet charge 40$ for your product? How is anybody suppose to buy without having the slightest knowledge of what actually we are going to be doing to make the money you're promising? You're literally selling a dream and this looks like nothing more than a waste of money if you cant provide some more information.

Can you give a little more information at least?

elkaa - August 9, 2017, 2:57 am

hi

i am a newbee in marketing so if you need a feedback from somone with no experience and as you told a kid can make a money from it.

can i have a vouch copy i will do real feedback.

Guide shows you how to create your own online business and profit from the business.

There are also bonus methods which do not require you to make an online business. Everything in the guide is step by step and i give videos/pictures just in case you get stuck with the method.

Works worldwide and you can use any payment processor and there isn't an age limit.
