I will be posting a deal dispute in-case he decides to not resolve it with me tonight as promised. I lost $450 in this and i'm not happy.

I'm posting a community alert just in-case he decides to exit scam while i'm waiting 6 hours for him to come online and "recover" the account for me. I've got tons more proof.

We will try to resolve this tonight, not sure why this thread was necessary.

I've seen Omni RKO someone for waiting 2 weeks to post a DD because they thought it was going to get resolved.

This is to help prevent other scams happening.

I'm pretty sure omni stopped doing RKO's now

You ensured that the account was good.

And yet, the account was taken.

I will not say Yoshi did take the account back as I do not have proof, but I do find it hard to believe that someone happened to gain access right after the deal went down.

Yoshi, just recover the account for him and give him the new password. Wet Rag, be sure to do a scan on your computer.

Good luck getting this resolved.

Everything is 2FA'd I take my security very seriously. He recovered it just to take my wealth most likely (1.1B = $200)

I've chargebacked on Jagex to insure that they froze the account. Whenever an account is charge backed you get to speak with an actual Jagex representative, and have communications with them for up to 24 Hours. If my account and wealth isn't returned to me tonight the account will be perm banned.

Don't think jagex will ban an account off of your word unless the money you paid him is tied to a paypal that matched one he may have used on RS or he has a history of selling that account. Plenty of accounts that are inactive are cracked/hacked and sold.

zeroday - August 7, 2017, 8:58 am

I hope Yoshi sorts this. I have done many deals with him in the past (I have bought and sold RSGP to him).

Jimmie - August 7, 2017, 9:01 am

I could be wrong but I'm pretty sure I seen another report a long time ago against Yoshi related to a runescape account.

I've been through this rodeo with 4 different accounts and I got every one banned. I'm not new to the Runescape market.

He will probably recover it and give you it back but don't expect to get the gold back.

Thats my problem, If the gold isnt there that means I can't put any wealth on the account or else he'll just keep recovering it for its gold and claim that it was "hacked"

That is the main issue you could have got hacked or he could have recovered it.

It's his word against yours I'm not saying you would lie but as far as we know you could have made this whole hacking story up not much you can do in this situation.

I completely understand but I wouldn't lie I was so ready to start pvming with friends and then this happened

First of all, I'd like to see actual proof that you aren't just trying to get a new account by claiming it has been recovered. I am not going to scam for a miserable RuneScape account, come on.

You haven't even given me a single change to solve this and you are already calling me out. It is good that you are trying to protect the community by making this alert, but I won't be exit scamming???

Your wealth should be safe for a few days if you have set a bank pin. Contacting jagex about this was pretty stupid, because it might raise flags.

I have just submitted my appeal to recover the account.

I have just submitted my appeal to recover the account.I dont mean to be a shit customer but I'm out on a lot of money right now and things in my life aren't going so great.

Sure I might get the account back but all my wealth is gone now

Closed, for now.

If the wealth doesn't remain on the account then I will post more proof with an updated OP.

Refunded what I paid for the account.

Thanks.
